

U. S. DEMANDS PEACE

KAISER'S ENVOY CONFERS WITH WILSON, CABLES TO GERMANY

NATURE OF TALK IS KEPT A SECRET

Washington, June 2.—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, had an audience with President Wilson today at noon. The president received the ambassador in the historic blue room of the White House.

Inasmuch as the conference was of an informal character no announcement concerning it was expected to be made.

It was understood, however, that the object of the ambassador's call was to gain from the president an idea of the points in the last American note which the United States is determined to insist upon.

The president it was said showed willingness to explain the position of the United States and to make it clear that it had been decided on only after careful consideration by the cabinet yesterday when it was decided to send a note of inquiry asking whether the imperial government would abide by the principle of international law. The president it was also understood gave his views regarding the ambassador to enlighten the Berlin government on the earnest intention of the United States to obtain a strict account.

F-4 WILL BREAK, IT IS FEARED

Washington, June 2.—Rear Admiral Moore at Honolulu reported today that the sunken submarine F-4 probably would break under the present methods of lifting but he will be able to lift the parts. Bad swells with only short intervals of smooth weather are delaying the work. The boat now lies on its starboard side, nearly upside down.

MAKES KING EMMANUEL A CORPORAL

Marseilles, France, June 2.—Lieutenant Zennaro, commanding the third Zouaves at Constantine, Algeria, has appointed King Victor Emmanuel of Italy third corporal in the first company, first battalion of the regiment, the rank which the king's grandfather was given on the night of the battle of Palestro.

The Austrians were defeated at Palestro May 30-June 1, 1859, by the French and Italian allies.

ACCEPTS DEATH SENTENCE RATHER THAN LET MOTHER KNOW OF WIFE

Columbus, Ohio, June 2.—How he refused to testify in his behalf during his trial for murder for fear his relations with a colored wife would become known to his aged mother who sat in the court room, was told by Sam Schiff, 21 years old boy, under sentence of death, in his application for clemency filed today with the state pardon board.

Schiff participated in the burglary of a saloon here last November and was convicted of shooting to death Patrolman James Ballard at that time. A fight will be made to save him from the death chair and commute his sentence to life imprisonment. His downfall he attributes to associations in a Charleston, W. Va., saloon and his later marriage to a colored girl.

Schiff's statement filed with the board, which will hear his application tomorrow in part follows:

"My father and mother were born in Austria-Hungary and I was born in Cleveland, January 26, 1894.

"I was sent to school up to the time I was 14 years of age and attended the synagogue and when I left home I was a correct and honest boy. This turn in my life came when my parents permitted me to go to work in a saloon at Charleston, W. Va. I was put behind the bar and the patrons of the saloon were people of law order, many of them negro criminals. I remained there several years and then went into the grocery business, but unfortunately I had met a colored girl by the name of Nettie Jones."

He relates how she forced him to marry her under threat of exposing him to prosecution under the Mann act, after they had come to Ohio, and how he finally married her in Cincinnati in July, 1914, under an assumed name to prevent his relatives from knowing this fact. She then brought him to Columbus, he says, where she introduced him to "Money Jim" Smith, now serving a life term in the penitentiary for complicity in the murder of Patrolman Ballard. Smith needed an assistant in his burglary business, "particularly a white boy to use as a look out," Schiff said.

Referring to the burglary of Tom Hall's saloon, Schiff says: "I was led into this by older men and by the evil influence of the woman. At the time of this unfortunate occurrence I was not yet 21 years old."

WAR BULLETINS

BOMB KILLS SIX

Warsaw, Russian Poland, June 2.—(Via London)—A bomb from a German aeroplane thrown down at Warsaw today struck a crowded moving picture theatre. The missile pierced the roof and in exploding killed six persons and wounded 25 others, mostly women and children.

PRISON CAMP BURNS

Amsterdam, (Via London) June 2.—The Cologne Gazette says a serious fire has occurred in the prison camp at Torgau, Prussia. Barracks for interned officers over a stretch of 160 yards were destroyed. The officers servants helped to fight the flames and saved most of their masters effects. No lives were lost. The cause of the fire is unknown.

GERMAN GENERAL CAPTURED

Petrograd, June 2.—(Via London) 2:38 p. m.—Newspapers published in the Baltic provinces are authority for the statement that a Russian patrol has captured Gen. Von Pritvitz, commandant of the German forces at Libau, together with several other German officers. The patrol had an encounter with the general's escort. Some of them were killed and the remainder taken prisoners. Gen. Von Pritvitz was slightly wounded on the head.

BRITISH STEAMER IS TORPEDOED, 7 DROWN

London, June 2. (12:15 p. m.)—The British steamer Saldahl, from Alexandria, Egypt, for Liverpool, was torpedoed yesterday in the North Sea. Seven members of the crew, including a stewardess, were drowned. Forty-one survivors were landed today at Chatham.

The Saldahl had a crew of 68 Greeks, a British commander and eight passengers of different nationalities. The loss of life was the result of jamming of davits while one of the boats was being lowered. The occupants of this boat were thrown into the water. Those in the other boats were picked up by a trawler. They assert that no warning was given before the vessel was torpedoed. It sank 15 minutes after the explosion.

The Saldahl was owned by the Khedival Mail Steamship company of London. She was formerly the steamship Preleria. She was built in Dunbarton, Scotland, in 1875 and was 350 feet long and of 1,345 tons net.

ENGLAND WILL PERMIT EXPORT OF BEET SEED

Washington, June 2.—Great Britain has announced its willingness to permit exportation of sugar beet seed from Germany to the United States under certain conditions. The following statement was issued today at the state department: "The British foreign office has announced Great Britain would consider each case of exportation of beet seed from Germany to the United States on its merits and would be willing to give assurances of non-interference with particular shipments."

"(A) If it is shown that the seeds cannot be obtained except in Germany.

CALLS SINKING OF GULF LIGHT MISTAKE

Berlin, June 2.—(Via London)—The German government has transmitted a communication to James W. Gerard, the American ambassador at Berlin, explaining that the torpedoing of the American steamer Gulf Light, off the Sicily Islands, on May 1, was a mistake.

GERMANS TAKE 300,000 RUSSIANS DURING MAY

Berlin, June 2. (Via London)—The German army headquarters announced today that more than 300,000 Russians had been captured during the month of May. Announcement also was made that further Russian entrenchments near Przemyśl had been captured.

"The war office gave out the following statement today: "We shot down a British flying machine at Bixschote. The occupants, one Belgian and one British officer, were taken prisoners."

"The sugar refinery east of Sanchez, into which the French penetrated yesterday afternoon has been recaptured by us. An attack begun by French against our positions at and south of Neuville during the evening was repulsed. Only a small section of a trench on the other side of the high road from Neuville to Reurieu was occupied by the enemy."

"Fighting at the forest of Leprerie for the possession of certain portions of the trenches continues."

"Eastern theatre of war: "Successful engagements occupied against minor Russian divisions at Neuhansen, 50 kilometres (30 miles) northeast of Libau, and at Shidiki, 69 kilometres southeast of Libau. The same thing happened further south in the district of Shavli and on the Duhysa, southeast of Kielmy and between Ugiunty and Bjargola. At Shavli we took 500 prisoners."

"Southeastern theatre: "Further Russian entrenchments situated around Dunikowiczki (near Przemyśl) were taken by storm yesterday. After the victory at Strzy the allied troops advanced yesterday in the direction of Medinice."

"In the month of May 863 officers and 268,869 men were taken prisoners in the eastern theatre of war as well as those announced yesterday."

PRINCE JOINS SOCIALISTS

Paris, June 2.—A Rome dispatch to the Matin says Prince Franco, a former deputy and a son of the Duke of Sermoneta, at one time Italian foreign minister, has joined the socialist reformist party.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., JUNE 2.—An order for half a million pairs of war shoes has been placed with a shoe manufacturing company of this place by the Rumanian government. It is to be a rush order and the shoes are to be constructed in accordance with special specifications.

WOMAN IS GIVEN LIFE SENTENCE

Muskegon, Mich., June 2.—Mrs. Albert Steele, found guilty of murdering her 11-year old step daughter was today sentenced to life imprisonment in the Detroit house of correction. The child was strangled to death. As a result of a statement made by Mrs. Steele shortly before sentence was passed upon her, her husband, the father of the dead girl, was taken into custody in connection with the crime.

WARNS LEADERS IN MEXICO BLOODSHED MUST STOP AT ONCE

TWELVE AMERICANS KILLED IN TAMPICO

Galveston, Texas, June 2.—Captain Oscar Lane of the tanker Winifred, which arrived from Tampico last night reports that ten or twelve Americans have been killed by Mexicans in Tampico in the last few days. His information was based on reports received in Tampico just before his departure.

Washington, June 2.—In a statement to the people today President Wilson served notice on the factional leaders of Mexico that "unless within a very short time" they unite to set up a government which the world can recognize the United States "will be constrained to decide what means should be employed by the United States in order to help Mexico save herself and serve her people."

Signaling a change from the "watchful waiting" policy, which has guided relations with Mexico for more than two years, the president's statement was regarded everywhere in official and diplomatic quarters as notice of a new and vigorous policy to restore peace below the Rio Grande.

Everywhere, it was interpreted as a warning that the patience of the United States is exhausted. What steps the president is prepared to take if his warning goes unheeded, is not disclosed in the statement. In high official quarters, nevertheless, no doubt existed that he be prepared to proceed.

The statement, which goes to Carranza, Villa, Zapata and Gurrza, the principal leaders, not as a diplomatic note from the United States but as a declaration of President Wilson's attitude, expressed in a statement to the American people as follows:

Leaders Have Disagreed "For more than two years revolutionary conditions have existed in Mexico. The purpose of revolution to rid Mexico of men who ignored the constitution of the republic and used their power in contempt of the right of its people and with these purposes the people of the United States instinctively and generously sympathized. But the leaders of the revolution, in the very hour of their success, have disingred and turned their arms against one another."

"All professing the same objects, they are, nevertheless, unable or unwilling to co-operate. A central authority at Mexico City is no longer set up than it is undermined and its authority denied by those who were expected to support it."

"Mexico is apparently no nearer a solution of her tragical troubles than she was when the revolution was first kindled. And she has been swept by civil war as if by fire. Her crops are destroyed, her fields lie unseeded, her work cattle are confounded for the use of the armed factions; her people flee to the mountains to escape being drawn into the unrelenting bloodshed and no man seems to see or lead the way to peace and settled order. There is no proper protection either for her own citizens or for the citizens of other nations resident, and at work within her territory. Mexico is starving and without a government."

U. S. Wants Nothing

"In these circumstances the people and government of the United States cannot stand indifferently by and do nothing to serve their neighbor. They want nothing for themselves in Mexico. Least of all do they desire to settle her affairs for her, or claim any right to do so. But neither do they desire to see her continue in this state of anarchy and civil war."

Bulgaria And Rumania Ready To Enter War?

Paris, June 2.—Bulgaria and Rumania have arrived at a complete understanding, according to a Bucharest dispatch to the Petit Parisien, Rumania having agreed to cede territory in Dobruja. The two countries will enter the war simultaneously the dispatch says, Rumania against Austria and Bulgaria against Turkey. The army staffs of the two powers are said to be busy co-ordinating military plans.

Negotiations between Rumania and Russia over the lines of the Pruth and of Danube are said to be virtually complete. If Rumania accepts Rumania's proposals the latter country is declared to be ready to begin hostilities without delay.

To the end; with having interfered with the friendly relations with China, with having aroused the suspicions of foreign powers, thereby harming the prestige of the empire instead of laying the foundations of peace in the orient and with having created a situation likely to be followed by further complications.

LACK CONFIDENCE IN PRESENT JAP CABINET

Tokio, June 2.—The opposition today introduced in the house of representatives a resolution expressing lack of confidence in the present cabinet. This resolution charged the cabinet with having failed in the negotiations with China from beginning to the end; with having interfered with the friendly relations with China, with having aroused the suspicions of foreign powers, thereby harming the prestige of the empire instead of laying the foundations of peace in the orient and with having created a situation likely to be followed by further complications.

Girl Students Aid In Arresting Thugs

Cleveland, June 2.—Girl students at Western Reserve College for women were heroines here today in a gun battle between suspected thieves and policemen, which was fought on the school campus.

A. P. Adams, realty dealer, was held up and robbed by two men in his office. When they fled he gave chase, picked up a policeman on the way and a running gun fight ensued. The suspects ran to the women's college campus and took refuge in the doorway of the Florn Mother Memorial building where they continued shooting at the police, of whom there were several by this time. Officers finally forced the pair from the doorway and they fled across the lawn to a temporary stage which had been erected for next week's commencement exercises. There they were held at bay until reinforcements arrived for the officers, help being summoned by telephone by college girls. Suspects were later overpowered and arrested.

With th' kind assistance o' th' Hammer Club I've been tryin' from time 't'ime 't' settle on th' outcome o' this war. Some time ago I expressed th' opinion th' nobody'd win and nobody'd get licked—that is they'd all fight till they gave out and then quit. Nuthin' has happened so far I change my opinion so I'm once more goin' on record as callin' it a "draw." How's that? What's my opinion o' this weather? Well, I'm inclined t' call that a "draw" too. Here's for tomorrow: Ohio—Probably rain tonight and Thursday.

Kentucky—Fair west; probably rain east portion tonight and Thursday.

W. Va.—Rain tonight and probably Thursday.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Flora Harr
The remains of Mrs. Flora Harr, wife of Newton Harr, who resides just back of Fullerton, Ky., were laid to rest in the Liberty cemetery last Thursday, May 27, 1915. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. J. Frazier in the new church at Sunshine on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Harr was taken suddenly ill when she arose to get her husband's breakfast on Tuesday morning, at 4 o'clock, from which time she hardly regained consciousness, and at 5 o'clock in the evening she closed her eyes in death. Mrs. Harr was a faithful member of the Methodist Protestant church at Fullerton, which she attended regularly until God called her to a better land. She was also a teacher in the Sabbath school, where her sweet and tender voice will be missed. She was an honorable citizen, a woman who had many friends because of her kindness and willingness to assist those in distress, and her pleasing disposition has won her the friendship of many, whose hearts are saddened because a dear wife, mother, sister and friend has been taken from them, one who will be missed in Fullerton and the surrounding community, where she was well known. She will be missed from the home, from the church and from the Sunday school, and by all who knew her. But God knows best, and in glory may we meet, in our prayer. Mrs. Harr was a devoted wife and loving mother, one who took pride and interest in her home and the general welfare of her husband and children.

Eight members of her Sunday school class acted as honorary pallbearers—Misses Lola Timberlake, Melissa Greer, Alice Nickel, Ina Carpenter, Lula Adams, Edna Davis, Esta and Carrie Brown. There were also six little flower-girls who led the way.

Mrs. Flora Harr, nee Miss Flora Panake, was born December 5, 1875. She was 36 years, 5 months and 22 days of age at the time of her death. She leaves to mourn her death her bereaved husband, Mr. Isaac Newton Harr, two sons, Raymond, aged 19 years, and Roy, aged 8 years, a mother, Mrs. R. C. Cooper, wife of Col. A. S. Cooper, a prominent lawyer of Greenup, Ky., three sisters, Mrs. Addie Royster, Mrs. Garnet Hamilton, of Bloom Switch, Ohio, and Mrs. Grace Cantrell, of Portsmouth, Ohio, and one half sister, Mrs. Millie Abrams, of Quincy, Ky., two brothers, Morris Panake and Edward Panake, of Gary, Ind., besides a host of friends and other relatives.

Our sympathy goes out to her devoted husband, who is heartbroken over the loss of a faithful and loving companion, and to her two dear little children, who have lost a kind mother's care; also to her aged mother, sisters, brothers and the many friends.

We know, however, our words of sympathy avail little in comparison with those of our dear Father, who is consoling them in their sad affliction.

Although grieving over the separation, we know she has gone to rest safely in the arms of Jesus, and we could not wish her back. But, oh, we miss her! Yes, we miss her, for there is a vacant chair that can never be filled. A. A. N.

William Brown

Mrs. Minnie Zornes of Front street, has returned from Greenup county, where she was called Sunday by the death of her father, the late William Brown, who was past 72 years of age. Mr. Brown is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lina Brown and four daughters and three sons.

John M. Williams

John M. Williams, local contractor killed last week by a street car on Ninth street, was bequeathed to his wife, Alice Dean Williams, by the provisions of his will, filed late this afternoon in probate court. At her death the property is to be divided equally among the four children.

CENSUS OF SCHOOL YOUTH FALLS OFF IN 2ND WARD

The enumeration canvass of persons of school age, that is between 6 and 21 years, as finally revised, is herein after reported.

Second Ward Prec. A, 1915, 236; loss from 1914 of 29. This is the lower river (Shiloh) district.

Second Ward Prec. B, 1915, 161; loss from 1914, 10. This district embraces east of Chillicothe and north from Third to Sixth street.

Second Ward Prec. C, 1915, 125; loss from 1914 of 8. This district embraces east of Chillicothe street between Sixth and Ninth streets.

Second Ward Prec. D, 1915, 250; loss from 1914 of 23. This is the upper river, or (Shiloh) district.

Second Ward Prec. E, 1915, 238; loss from 1914 of 23. This is the territory north of Third to Gallia streets between Sinton and Officers streets.

Second Ward Prec. F, 1915, 175; gain over 1914 of 16. This territory is north of Gallia to Ninth and east from John to Officers streets.

Total in Second Ward, 1183; loss from 1915, 105.

It will be seen that the principal falling off is in the river precincts, and a careful re-canvass of precincts A and D showed that the losses were along Mill and Front streets where the old tenement houses are falling into decay and being vacated and the former occupants moving back to higher ground and into better quarters or migrating to former homes in Kentucky.

A considerable element of our population is a migratory class who, in busy times when there is a demand for unskilled labor and boy and girl labor in the local factories, move over from Kentucky land as soon as dull or slack times set in migrate back across the river.

These people move along the lines of least resistance and usually settle on the upper river front and in Earlytown along Lawson's Run as far up as Bowery Hollow. Our heaviest losses from 1914 are found to be along these lines.

Do You Suffer?

"Eight years ago," writes Mrs. Luther Downey, of Plaquemine, Ohio, "I was unable to do anything on account of womanly troubles. Two of the best doctors in town persuaded me to have an operation. I did so and never knew a well day afterwards. I suffered from almost every ailment women are heir to. As I grew older I got worse, until I could not be up long enough to cook a meal. I only weighed 100. My husband got me a bottle of CARDUI, and the first three doses helped. Now I weigh 165 pounds, and feel fine. I cannot say enough in favor of the remedy, for it has made me well."

Five Students Step On Life's Threshold With Diplomas From New Boston High School

Milbrook Casino was crowded to its capacity Tuesday evening with relatives and friends of the graduates who had finished their three year courses of study in the New Boston High School to witness their graduation and to enjoy a splendidly arranged commencement program. Many Portsmouth citizens were in attendance. The 1915 class consists of one girl, Golda Alene O'Neal, and four boys, Lonie Chin, Raymond L. Haselip, Ernest S. Taylor and Eliza Carl Porter. Each had an interesting subject upon which to talk and they did splendidly. Five girls formed the graduating class of 1914. The Steel Plant Boys' band enhanced the evening with a concert in front of the Casino before the opening of the exercises.

At eight o'clock sharp the curtain rose, revealing an attractive stage setting. The front of the stage was very tastefully decorated with vases of flowers near the footlights. Large palms here and there on the stage added to the decorating scheme while the class flower, white rose, was much in abundance. The single girl graduate carried a bouquet of class flowers while each boy wore a beautiful white rose bud. The sides of the stage were covered with large American flags and the class pennants of purple and gold. Hanging from the grand drape at the front of the stage was a large white banner bearing the class motto "Esse Quam Videri" (To Be Rather Than To Seem) in large purple letters. A border of green ferns on the banner side made it more attractive.

Seated in the first row on the stage were Superintendent S. D. Eckhart, Rev. Morris Bridwell, the graduates, Hon. O. T. Carson and Principal D. E. Ross. In the second row were seated Hazel Maple, Olive Chin, Gwendolyn O'Neal, Clay Skelton, Ralph Cantley, Kenneth Taylor and Chester Fitch who form the Senior class of 1916. In the third row were the Freshmen or 1916 Juniors as follows: Vernie Arlis, Emma Hayden, Thelma Moore, Mahel Hall, Catherine Cameron, Margaret Bricker, George Blume, Will Shaver, James Taylor and Charles Lawson. The teachers, J. M. Warner, Edna E. Geiss, N. E. Ricker, Edith Wilson, C. V. Smith, Clifford Shumer, Bessie Aeh, Gussie Holmes, Rita McCarty, Grace Schoenover, Alma Davissan and Laura Waller formed the fourth row while in the fifth row were Miss Gertrude Schmidt, musical director, Misses Hazel Walters and Myrtle Thomas of the 1914 class and Miss Luntia Harr and Robert Ponce of the 1913 class.

Never has it been privileged a New Boston audience to listen to as eloquent and able an address as that delivered by Hon. O. T. Carson of Columbus, to the graduating class. Bode's orchestra furnished the music and contributed largely to the enjoyment of the evening with their seven choice selections.

The invocation and benediction were given by Rev. Morris Bridwell, pastor of the New Boston Baptist church. Rev. Bridwell delivered the benediction sermon to the students Sunday evening.

Eliza Porter Gives The First Oration
Eliza Porter, who was the first of the class to give a talk, had as her subject "Our Foreign Policy and the War." It was an exceptionally appropriate talk coming just when the country's foreign policy is being much discussed. He explained the extensive trade carried on by the United States with foreign countries and how the great European conflict is retarding this large trade. During his talk he brought out that the commerce would probably be considerable loss after the war is over, there being at present no sight of the end of the great struggle. Sixteen years ago the American foreign policy was set forth in the Monroe Doctrine. He dwelt for sometime on the progressiveness of the United States and how it is being retarded by the war. His subject was one that was greatly enjoyed by all.

The Future of the United States
"The Future of the United States" was the subject chosen by Ernest Taylor and it was very ably set forth to the very appreciative audience.

He said: "I have faith in the future because I have confidence in the present. With our growth in wealth and power I can see no abatement to our success. We are true to ourselves and instincts of freedom, of love of order, and respect of law. Our educational system, and government are the most advanced in the world and a model for all other people. But outside and above all is the character of the people themselves—industrious, self-reliant and with one common sentiment, that they receive from the constitution, which was given them by their fathers, and observed and protected by them, the pledge of prosperity, the palladium of liberty and the keeping of the union. The safety of the state rests in the arms of the people, not with the members of congress or demagogues. From what position has this country advanced from the eighteenth century? And I have faith that it will still advance in population, morals and knowledge. The future of the United States as a whole depends on the natural productions of the earth for her wealth and power. With the amazing growth in material and intellectual resources, and with practically unlimited room for expansion, it is possible adequately to realize to what during the coming centuries, the American people will grow."

Lonie Chin On Nation and Humanity

Lonie Chin had as his theme "Nations and Humanity" which he explained in a very able manner. In handling his subject he said in part: "It was not his olive valleys and orange groves which made the Greece of the Greek, and it was not for his apple orchard or potato field that the farmer of New England left his plow in the field and marched to Bunker Hill and Saratoga. A man's country is not a certain area of land but it is a principle; and patriotism is loyalty to that principle. The secret sanctification of the soil and the symbol of a country is the idea which they represent; and this idea the pe-triot worships through the name and the symbol. Through all history to the end, that army must still march, and fight and fall. But countries and families are but nurseries and influences. A man is a father, a brother, a German, a Roman, an American; but beneath all he is a man. The end of his destiny is not to be the best German or the best Roman or the best father, but the best man he can be. History shows us that the association of man in various nations is made subservient to the gradual advance of the whole human race; and that nations work together toward one grand result. We of America with our soil sanctified and our symbol glorified and the great ideas of liberty and religion—love of freedom and love of God—are in the foremost vanguard of this great caravan of humanity. And so with our individual hearts, strong in love for our principle, strong in faith in our God, shall the nation leave to the coming generations a heritage of freedom, and law and religion and truth, more glorious than the world has known before; and our American banner was planted first and highest on the highest heights as yet unseen in the great march of humanity."

The Hope of Progress

Raymond Haselip was the last of the boys to deliver a talk, and he used as his subject, "The Hope of Progress." He said: "There are two lives if not more in which we may look with hope to progress in the future. In the first place, increased knowledge of nature, of the properties of matter, and the phenomena which surround us, may afford us advantages far greater than are now enjoyed. Secondly, the extension and importance of education, the increasing influence of science and art, of poetry and music, of literature and religion, of all the powers which are tending to good, will, we may reasonably hope, raise man and make him more masterful of himself, more able to appreciate and enjoy his advantages and to realize the truth of the Italian proverb, that wherever light is, there is joy. It is extraordinary how slight a margin may stand for years between man and some important improvement. The possibilities of progress seem to us to be almost unlimited. Few of us make the most of our minds, the body in a few years ceases to grow; but the mind, if we will let, may grow as long as life lasts. Progress, we may hope, will not be merely material, not merely mental, but moral also. Our life is surrounded with mystery, our very world is a speech in boundless space; and not only our individual life but that of the whole human race is as it were but a moment in the eternity of time. We cannot imagine any origin or force the conclusion. Progress may be more slow or more rapid. It may come to others and not to us. It will not come to us if we do not strive to deserve it, but come it surely will. The future of man is full of hope, and who can foresee the limits of his destiny."

Golden O'Neal had as her part of the class prophecy the subject being "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow." Miss O'Neal's essay follows: "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" "How wonderful are the changes which are brought about as constant time spins along in a plain walk unknown by the masses of people, tomorrow may regard this same person as famous and distinguished.

"Thus it has only been ten years since that most pleasant and long remembered evening of the graduation of our class from New Boston High School, and yet at that time I dare say we were well known only within the limits of our little city. But time has made a decided change in the career of each classmate, and as I have been away from New Boston for several years it is with great interest that I am renewing the friendship of my former classmates. By the way, New Boston is no longer addressed as the little village, because it now boasts of its several thousand inhabitants and has taken its place on the map as a worthy rival of its sister city Portsmouth.

"After graduating in 1915, my only aspiration was to become an accomplished vocalist. I decided to go abroad and study music. Having made all necessary preparations for my long desired trip and bidding my admirable classmates and intimate friends farewell, I went to New York and there took a steamer for Europe. I fully intended to study music at Naples, Italy, but upon meeting a reliable friend enroute for Germany, who had been graduated from College of Music at Berlin and highly praised the merits of this institution, I therefore decided to finish my vocal education at this noted college. Having carried out this decision I finished my four years course and was graduated with commendable honor. Then I sang at the Opera House in Berlin for a period of six years. Knowing I would be glad to see my New Boston friends after an absence of ten years, I made all preparations for returning to the United States and am pleased to say that I have arrived safely in New Boston, and appreciate being among my beloved friends once more.

"Upon inquiring about my distant classmates I find that each has attained an excellent reputation. It was not difficult to find my former school friends, although they are all married nevertheless, they bear the same full name. If any of you had the pleasure of attending our commencement exercises in 1915, you will well remember that I was a rose among four thorns, or a thorn among four roses whichever the case may be.

"To my great delight I ascertained that Mr. Eliza Porter became exceedingly desirous to annex his name to the honored roll of physicians. He devoted most of his time so that M. D. may be his title. He has zealously endeavored to accomplish his great aspiration and I am pleased to hear that he now rides as victor over his task. In attaining the set mark he entered the Chicago University of Medicine and pursued his studies in such a laudable manner as to have an honorable degree conferred upon him in graduating. Later he went abroad to complete his medical education and after spending four years at the University of Paris and graduating with highest distinction, he returned to New Boston. Now he is one of New Boston's most prominent physicians and all manifest a great appreciation of his fine medical attainments more so because he is a product of their home city.

"I find that Mr. Ernest Taylor by the urgent solicitations of his friends consented to announce himself as a candidate on the Democratic ticket and was elected by a great majority. I was not in the least surprised to hear of Ernest's political popularity and success as his favorite daily theme of conversation at school was the wonderful accomplishments of the Democratic party. At present I observe that he is faithfully executing his duties as becomes the most honored official of the city. And occasionally he favors the public with an interesting speech on the welfare of the city and the principles of his espoused party. In short Ernest is efficient mayor and a most progressing politician. So always forward and never backward, Honorable Mayor, and perhaps some day you may be president. Who knows?

"Mr. Lonie Chin has taken an efficient course in the Business College of Cincinnati. He completed his term with an excellent reputation and received a handsome gold medal as a reward for his praiseworthy record as a business student. He has the honor of being the first Seale county student who finished the course with the highest average of his respective class. His father expresses his appreciation of his fine business merits by retiring and entrusting the management of his business to his capable son. Upon visiting L. O. Chin's store I find that the building has been artistically furnished according to the whole architectural plan and is twice as large as the building of 1915, and that the interior is modern throughout presenting a spectacle not to be surpassed by any other first class grocery.

"Upon visiting the High School I was exceedingly glad to meet my old schoolmate, Raymond Haselip skillfully performing the duties of principal of the New Boston High School, following in the footsteps of our former teacher Mr. Ross, this fact was recalled to my mind when I heard Prof. Haselip's Algebra class recite and I remembered my former teacher's method. I was very anxious to hear about Prof. Haselip's school career. After leaving High School I learned that he entered Oxford College and successfully completed his four years, graduating with distinction. Raymond was always very studious, especially in Latin, and it was not in the least surprising to know that he had met with crowning success. It seemed very pleasing and appropriate to have one of my former schoolmates as chief executive of the same High School in which I obtained the foundation of my erudition.

"Prof. Haselip informed me that Mr. Ross, our once diligent and efficient professor, is listed as one of the honored professors of the famed Harvard College. This is not surprising because Mr. Ross always took great delight in our studies and enjoyed drilling knowledge into our brain. His utmost delight was hearing our recitations which were prepared according to his able instructions. Thus, by reflecting upon the faithful devotion of our esteemed teacher I readily perceived the various steps in the flight of stairs which led our former teacher to his present position. It was entirely unnecessary to be told of his crowning success at Harvard, nevertheless, I was much pleased to hear Prof. Haselip praise my former teacher. I can well estimate Harvard's appreciation of Mr. Ross by remembering New Boston's endless gratitude for him. Each pupil of the New Boston High School has commenced a remarkable career due to the conscientious efforts of Mr. Ross and may the many classes of Harvard reap a similar reward.

"After learning of the present vocation of Prof. Ross and Prof. Haselip, I inquired about our previous superintendent. He is no longer connected with the institution of literary learning but with the machine of the government. It was provoking to think that I had been so earnestly devoted to my music that I did not know who the present governor of my native state was. But it was no surprise to see Mr. Eckhart occupying that honorable office as chief executive of the state because he always displayed wonderful ability especially as an executive. Our Honorable Governor well deserves the high office which he now holds as he is a diligent and conscientious worker in whatever mission he is called upon to carry out. While listening to the narrative of our former superintendent's political career I mentally compared his complete success as a guide on the political sea, with his inexpressible popularity as a guide among the school children and concluded that both successes were due to his fair dealing and kind manner toward all whom he met. May our deserving governor be as honored and revered by his political friends as he is esteemed and respected by all the former graduates of the class of 1915 and may he enjoy many successful and prosperous years."

Principal D. E. Ross addressed the audience thanking them for the honor they paid the students by their presence. He introduced Hon. O. T. Carson of Columbus, as being a man who has devoted the greater part of his life to the welfare of students. He was no stranger to the New Boston people as he delivered the class address to the pupils of the 1912 class. He has the interest of the students at heart and as editor of the Ohio Educational Monthly, he closely follows the steadily advancing school system of our country. Mr. Carson is scheduled for a commencement address every night this week and for six weeks has been busy delivering commencement addresses all over the state. Wednesday night he will be at Put-In-Bay. He talked to the students of Portsmouth High School Tuesday afternoon. He is a very distinct talker and made an eloquent address that will long linger in the minds of those who heard him. Mr. Carson chose as his subject, "Is the Public School a Failure."

Mr. Carson Delivers Commencement Address

In discussing his subject he said: "The free public school is one of our greatest institutions if not our greatest. Every child, no matter of what type or nationality, is invited into the school and has a splendid chance to develop his or her ability. The school is a place where the rights of pupils are safely guarded. The health of the student is conserved. The school gives training in two essential things—obedience in authority and recognition of the rights of one and another. The free public school is distinctly fundamental. Our nation could not endure without a free public school system. No other nation has the school system of the United States that grants a chance to all children of all classes and kinds. It is a marvelous institution."

Mr. Carson knocked in the head the idea that too many times are being taught in the public school. He said: "Never censure the teachers as it is not the teacher that demands the new work that is continually being added. The schools are doing two or three times as much work as they did a quarter of a century ago. The reason that new work is being added to the schools is because less is taught the pupil in the home. The modern homes are not doing what used to be done in the way of teaching the pupil at home. There are many homes where this work cannot be done as the mothers are away the same as the fathers, helping to provide the living. This clearly illustrates why the domestic science course has been added to the school girls' training. So it is with everything that is added."

Mr. Carson is a product of south-western Ohio and cited from his own experience of how the boys had a chance to learn a trade by striving ahead on the farm and village shops of industry. "It is harder for students to learn a trade in these days. This is the chief reason schools are taking up the work in the way of manual training and science. The training was formerly done by public enterprise. The public school was never more highly complimented

Auto Parade Will Boost Chautauqua

The 1915 Chautauqua in July will be heralded by a big automobile parade over the principal streets of the city two days before the opening day, it was announced today. Penants and other advertising features will be conspicuous in the parade, which is intended to arouse the public interest in the merit-ious eight days' program which has been arranged for the local engagement. It is planned to have every automobile that can be secured in the parade.

Definite decision relative to the place for holding the Chautauqua will not be made until the arrival of the advance man, who is expected here within a week or ten days.

USED FLOOD WALL AS BED

REPAIRS WANTED

The city has again called the attention of the street railway company to the urgent need of repairing its track and that it is not awaiting itself of the part of the money the state utilities commission permitted the company to issue for extensions and betterments. The company is also advised that immediate repairs be made to its track at Second and Market streets where the double converges into a single track.

Had Lung Trouble and Expected to Die

The many recoveries wrought about by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are attracting wide attention. Read about this case. My name is W. W. Bennett. I was taken sick in November, 1908. I grew steadily worse. Had five consultations. The verdict was the liver had affected my lungs and that my case was hopeless; only gave me two months to live. My physician had tried every kind of treatment and more did me any good. As he asked my husband if he objected to him trying a proprietary medicine, I began your Alternative. I was in bed from November 10, 1908, until February 10, 1909, and two thousand days of suffering. Today I am healthy and stronger than ever. (Address: 1515 N. 10th St., Philadelphia.)

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Grandma's recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur dawns so naturally that nobody can tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp, and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

OUR EXPORTS IN APRIL.

Let us envy the lot of the plain and honest farmer. In April our exports of breadstuffs, cattle, hogs, sheep, meat and dairy products, cotton, and mineral oils amounted to $136,613,637 as against $56,286,782 a year ago in April. In detail exports of corn increased from $508,976 in 1914 to $7,147,435 in 1915 for the corresponding months of April. Wheat exports in April, 1914, were $3,014,746 and in April, 1915, they were $36,281,467. Flour jumped from $4,067,182 in April, 1914, to $9,616,568 in April, 1915. Canned beef was $34,977 in April, 1914, and in April, 1915, it amounted to $1,245,872. Fresh beef exports in April, 1914, amounted to $11,057 and in April, 1915, they were $3,565,960. Bacon exports in April, 1914, were $1,747,814 and in April, 1915, they were $5,617,613. When one studies these figures the reason for the continuance of high prices is not hard to understand. Nor can one fail to see why with the promise of bountiful crops the coming season there should not be wonderful prosperity in store for the agricultural interests of this country.

WHAT CAN ITALY DO?

What will be the effect of Italy's entrance? First of all, it will bring to the Allies a million of trained soldiers. It will relieve the pressure now exerted on the routed Russians in Galicia and call for new contributions of German troops to defend Austria. In moral effect it will be even more impressive than its immediate military influence. In the tenth month of a war that has become, at the least, a deadlock, the Allies gain a new army, a new nation. Nor is it at all improbable that Italy will be promptly followed by Rumania, or that the appearance of Italian troops at the Dardanelles will enlist Greece. Even Bulgaria may now find the time to consult future interests rather than past grievances.

That Italy can hope to force her way far into Austria now is unlikely. The nature of her frontier, the tremendous Austrian redoubt of the Trentino Tyrol, rising out of the Pa Valley, precludes the hope of immediate advance on Vienna, perhaps even on Trieste, defended against her fleet by the submarines which are counted for the Gambletta. Not improbably the actual entrance of Italy will be followed by a tremendous Austro-German offensive aimed at Verona and Milan, an effort to seize Verona, re-occupy the old Quadrilateral, hold the banks of the Adige and the Minio. German "terribleness" may hope to strike terror into the hearts of Italians by a successful campaign in the Pa Valley, made possible by recalling the victorious corps from Galicia.

Two months earlier, on the morning of the fall of Przemyśl, the entrance of Italy would have had disastrous results for Austria. For her own sake, for the cause of her new allies, Italy, as she now enters, will come too late. Russia has been defeated, has suffered the most terrible disaster of the war. The fighting in the west has adjourned the hopes of a "Spring drive." The Dardanelles campaign is approaching a deadlock. Italy will not "rush to the succor of the victor," she will enter a perilous path, driven by popular demand and secular grievances. She brings new hope to the Allies, but her share of the burden is bound to be considerable. Venice and Milan may know the destruction of Rheims and Lovain. From "Germany's New Offensive in May," by Frank H. Simonds, in the American Review of Reviews for June.

Look here. Just after Senator Tremper and Representative Sprague wished Vinton county out as a part of our new congressional district along comes the department of agriculture with the fearsome intelligence that Vinton is one of the fourteen Ohio counties marked for the invasion this year of the Cicada alias the Seventeen Year Locust. And what is worse Vinton is the only Southern Ohio county on the calling list of the pest. We wondered just why Vinton county was being booted around by the district makers. Now we know, but we wonder still more as to just why our own legislators took Vinton to bed with them.

We met an honest man on our way to the office this morning. He wanted a dime, and with a sad expression on his noble countenance said that he had not had a bite to eat for twelve hours. Then we asked him just exactly what he expected to buy for a dime and the honest fellow with an "I cannot tell a lie" look out of his eye, said, "I can get a schooner with one nickel and a sandwich with the other." Such rare honesty could not go unrewarded even though one ran fearful risk of becoming an aider and abettor of a life devoted to sinful ways.

Again we are disappointed. The statistician of the Hammer Club has failed to weigh in with data as to the exact years in which the June rise got the corn crop in the low lands.

AFTER THE RAMPAGE.

THE END OF THE SESSION.

A calm impassioned review of the work of the Ohio legislature is given in a leading editorial of the Cleveland Plain Dealer under the heading "The End of the Session", as follows:

"If anyone thought Ohio was to have a new kind of legislature as a result of last fall's election, he now has the opportunity to correct the error of his expectations. The eighty-first general assembly adjourned Saturday night. Unless occasion arises for a special session, the law-making machinery will be inactive till January, 1917, when the eighty-second general assembly will meet. By and large, the legislature just adjourned was like the average legislature in Ohio or any other state. Governor Willis, in the closing weeks of the session, has shown himself no less what a "boss" in his dealings with the assembly than his predecessors were. If anything he wielded the whip more vigorously. After outbidding his immediate predecessor for various interferences with the legislative process, Mr. Willis adapted their plan and carried it further. When Frank B. Willis appeals to the people of Ohio next year for vindication, it is safe to wager that he will make no further promises to be an "old-fashioned governor." So far as that feature of the present administration is concerned, Mr. Willis' opponents have triumphed signally over his friends and himself. If there were virtue or profit in the "I told you so," those who opposed the election of the present regime might employ it without stint. Some minor accomplishments of a constructive nature stand to the credit of the retiring assembly. But virtually everyone of the big things done have been things undone; the record is one of destruction. The governor and the legislative majority took office in January with the intention to destroy many of the big measures put on the statute books by the previous administration. "Rippers" predominated from the beginning. Neither in his leadership nor in his appointments has the governor shown any independence of partisan traditions. He has ousted capable state officials because their places in the service were needed for his party supporters. THE CIVIL SERVICE HAS MEANT NOTHING TO HIM. The only Democrats he has chosen to recognize have been those who, by one device or another, were an assistance to himself at the last election. Without denying the good things accomplished during the session, there is plenty of evidence that the winter's work by the governor and legislature has been a disappointment to many who were instrumental in bringing the administration into existence."

Our excellent mayor has succeeded in impressing one fact upon the citizens of this man's town—and that is his entire willingness to tackle anything that may be called to his attention. That came home to us Monday afternoon when we walked down town with a man who said he was on his way down to see the mayor to ask him to have an unsightly pile of rubbish removed from an alley near his home. "Our honorable mayor will get it moved for me all right," said the man.

Huntington, in keeping with the progressive spirit that animates the town, has just voted almost unanimously in favor of a $600,000 worth of bonds to further extend and improve her highways. There's nothing like good roads to help along the growth of a city.

THE NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION

Columbus, Ohio, June 2.—Now that the Ohio legislature has adjourned after having worked out its ripper program, opportunity is afforded the public men of Ohio to pay more of attention to the conduct of the national government. By all it is recognized that the United States faces a critical situation, but confidence is everywhere expressed in the president and his aides. In Ohio it brings to attention the fact that at no time has the president had any more staunch support than that of Sen. Pomerehne, who in recent addresses has been explaining the work of the administration. The business interests of the country have come to realize that they have nothing to fear in the honest conduct of their affairs and that there is an end to the persecution started by a fire-brand executive some years ago. Business interests are emphatic in their assertions that they want no further tinkering with tariff or other laws which tend to make business working conditions unsettled and uncertain; having adjusted themselves to the present system they find it all that was promised and more; nor do they want an upheaval even for what might be a promised advantage. The federal reserve banking system, which is the great contribu-

Given Over To Drilling

The meeting of Vienna Camp Sons of Veterans last night was given over to drilling in manual and march, and practice by drum and bugle corps. Several of the members of the degree team were unable to attend on account of other important engagements, as the Decoration holiday deferred all official meetings to following evening, so the candidates were dismissed and no initiation held. The next big number on the schedule is the Munsfield Division Encampment June 21-24. Several of the members of Vienna will make the trip.

One of the cheering little things these depressing days is to pick up the esteemed Ironton Register and see flaunting defiantly from its mast head, the slogan, "Largest circulation in Southern Ohio." In critical moments however, we are disposed to wonder as to the exact definition of the zone included in the Register's "Southern Ohio."

The aggravating thing about giving away your entire undivided surplus to Belgian refugees, colored and otherwise, unfortunate newspaper men, and the like that came into your elegantly appointed offices is that you know perfectly well that they regard you as a huge and ludicrous easy mark, instead of as a nice, kind man.—Columbus Journal.

They have a safe and sane way of determining the population in Sumnerset, Perry county, Ohio. When asked a native said, "Well we are entitled to two saloons under the law and if we had had 195 more people we could have had three saloons. So you see stranger we have just 1395 people." Very exact, diplomatic and informative, we call that answer.

The rumor will not down that the real Republican candidate for mayor is still in the stable waiting for the signal to make a grand entrance to the track. And when the word comes look out for a scattering of the quarter horses.

Judd Mortimer Lewis of the Houston Post has refused to act as judge of a baby show. Judd is evidently too proud to fight.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Colonel Watterson has become much more moderate and restrained in his praise of Woodrow Wilson, and all he says this week is that heaven picked him out for the job.—Columbus S. C. State.

We are concerned over the disappearance from the news reports for the past few days of those eminent publicists, Colonel T. Roosevelt and Mr. Jess Willard. Can any one enlighten us?

We count yesterday as a bright and shining day. There was not a single state inspector of something or other in town falling over the heels of another state inspector of this and that.

Judging from the lack of news from the Gould-James battlefield in Jackson county we would infer, to use the language of these war like days, the principal combatants are facing each other in the trenches, waiting for a an opening.

Takes Agency

Walter Gableman Tuesday took over the local agency of the Cincinnati Times-Star, which for the past two years had been controlled by Robert E. Lewis, of Fourth street.

Rushed Growler

Grant Allen, Frank Holt and Virgil Mershon were arrested for "rushing a growler" in Paradise Alley Tuesday afternoon.

B'Gosh

Harold—I'm thinking of going into business and I'd like to handle something there's a big demand for.
Lee—Why don't you handle gosh?

Harold—Gosh? Say, what is gosh anyhow?
Lee—I don't know, but every other person I meet says buy gosh, so it must be good stuff.

Steady All Right

"That Jones boy who used to work for you wants to hire out to me. Is he steady?"
"Steady? If he was any steadier he'd be motionless."—O. B. Bulletin.

A Bird Story

Somebody tells a story of how he walked beside a railway line with a man who was very hard of hearing. A train was approaching, and as it rounded the curve, the whistle gave one of those ear-deafening shrieks which seem to pierce to high heaven. A smile broke over the deaf man's face. "That is the first robin," said he. "That I have heard this spring."—The National News.

Mary, did you water the rubber plant?"
"Shure, na, ma'am. I thought it was water proof."—Efficiency.

An Ideal Hubby
"What is your ideal of a husband?"
"One who lets me have the last word in clothes and conversation."

Ouch!
Victim—Mercy! That isn't the right tooth you've pulled.
Dentist—Be patient, madam; I'm coming to it.

Got What He Was Looking For
"Got an opening for me here?" asked the college graduate, walking into the busy man's office.
"Certainly," responded the employer pleasantly. "Close it as you go out."—Exchange.

The Good Idea
The serious-looking man was trying hard to listen to the speaker's eloquence, but the squalling of an infant in the row of seats directly ahead, gave him little opportunity. Annoyance gave way to irritation and irritation in turn was superseded by resolve. He leaned forward, touched the mother on the shoulder and in a dispassionate tone asked:
"Has your baby been christened yet?"
"Why, no sir. Why do you ask?"
"Merely because I was about to suggest that if he had not been christened you might name him 'Good Idea.'"
"And why 'Good Idea'?" asked the woman.
"Because," the man struggled hard to repress his feelings, "it should be carried out."—Exchange.

Wanted Son
John Bias, who recently de-camped taking with him his daughter Lenora, returned Monday and demanded the custody of his young son, Buster, but his wife refused to give up the boy.

Keep Smiling, But—
It will not suffice to keep smiling; it will not quite serve to be gay.
It's never enough to sing out: "I'm the stuff!"
I'll win—if you give me my way.
You've got to stand up to disaster.
Defeated, your courage renew; Then say with a grin that means business: "I'll win in spite of the worst you can do!"

The world loves a smiler—that's granted; But sometimes the world, without fear, Is quick to surmise that his anger won't rise.
So hands him a poke in the ear! Then if he keeps buoyantly smiling Nor takes in his humor a truck, The world will declare: "Since he seems not to care, I'll wait him another for luck."

Keep grinning! Oh, yes, he as cheery
As ever you wish to the white; But show that beneath is a full set of teeth
To back up and bolster the smile.
Remind the old world that you're ready
To fight to the end of the war; The world then—no myth!—you will get to smile with you
That might have smiled at you before!

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snoring, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, June 2.—Greater firmness and breadth marked today's early dealings in the stock exchange but war specialties were again the dominant features. Advances of 1 to 4 points were recorded by General Electric, Bethlehem Steel, Westinghouse and Crucible Steel while allied issues rose a point or two. General mining preferred 4½. United States Steel was the only speculative leader to gain as much as a point, others in that group rising only fractions. Among the few declines of the first half were New Haven and New York Air Brake which fell 1 and 2 points respectively.

For some undefined reason Wall street was disposed to place a favorable interpretation on the conference to held later in the day between the president and the German ambassador. This was reflected in a widening of the area of gains which later embraced the more representative shares. Towards midday dealings divided, though without impairment of quoted value. Bonds were firm.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, June 2.—Fresh declines in the prices of wheat resulted today from lower cable quotations and from comparatively favorable weather. Prospects of rain over the southwest, however, tended to advance the market. On the other hand a reduction in the flour at Minneapolis counted somewhat against the bulls. After opening ¼ to ½ down, wheat underwent a little further setback and then secured a moderate upturn.

Demand from the seaboard gave strength to corn. Predictions of adverse weather led also to an increase of buying. The opening which ranged from the same as last night to ¼ higher was followed by gains all around.

Oats went down grade with wheat. The firmness of corn was ignored. Provisions eased off in consequence of lower prices for hogs. Another bearish influence was the piling up of lard in the local warehouse stock.

Afterwards uncertainty in regard to foreign relations appeared to have an influence in bringing about new declines in wheat. Besides, European demand was small. The close was heavy at 2½ to 3½¢ under last night.

The corn market later receded owing to the pronounced fall in the value of wheat. The close was weak at 1½ to 1½¢ and ½ net decline.

OPENING PRICES
Wheat: May $1.20; July $1.19½; Sept. $1.18½.

The Movies

Great Show At The Lyric
Tonight

Edna Mayo and Bryant Washburn in a stirring two reel romance "Means and Morals", Cissy Fitzgerald and Wally Van in a comedy mix-up "Cutie's Sister" and clever Mabel Normand in a Keystone comedy, "Wished On Mabel", three pictures that make an excellent show tonight.

Bunny Charlie Chaplin will make your ribs rattle with laughter tomorrow in a two reel explosion of fun called "Dynamite" and Lillian Walker will be with us in a breezy romance called "The Love Whip". Friday's show is a Broadway Star feature "The Lady of the Lighthouse", a powerful dramatic offering featuring Rose Tapley and Lionel Adams, an unusual and deeply interesting story. "The Awakening Hour" will be the feature for Saturday, a romantic affair with Jos. Bryan Totten and Nell Craig in the leads. This is one of the cleverest three reel features that ever came from the big Essanay studios. So be sure you get to see it.

Charlie Chaplin, Columbia
Tonight

Charlie Chaplin, that funny man in motion pictures made the hit of his career at the Columbia last night, and Manager Tynes announces that he has been able to hold this picture over for tonight, so all those who did not see this great picture last night will have an opportunity to see it at the Columbia this evening.

It is a story of how Charlie met and conquered the champion prize fighter, and is without doubt the funniest picture ever shown at this popular picture house. It is in two reels and fun runs riot throughout the entire 2,000 feet of film.

In addition to this picture "The Wishing Stone", a very delightful little story, will also be shown.

Tomorrow the World's Feature Film Company present "M'Liss", Bret Hart's story in five interesting reels will be shown.

Barbara Tennant that beautiful emotional actress, plays the leading part ably assisted by Howard Esterbrook, one of the best actors in motion pictures.

It is a story of the feverish "Gold-seeking Days" of '49 and the scenes are all laid amid the beautiful atmosphere of a Nevada wild-wood and it is a picture far above the general run of feature pictures.

At Temple Theatre.
"The Devil Worshipers". The affairs in the troubled career of Elaine are nearing a climax, and in this installment the identity of the clutching hand is discovered. In connection with "Exploits of Elaine" is the "Artist's Model," by R. V. Spencer, a drama that every mother and daughter ought to see. With this big program, Miss Alma Davis will sing the latest popular song, entitled "The Garden of Flowers," composed by H. Gahler, an N. & W. machinist.

At The Pastime
Charles Chaplin, the celebrated moving picture comedian, is being featured in a Keystone comedy showing at The Pastime in Sciotoville tonight. He is taking a leading part in "Andros's Little Hatchet", a one reel comedy feature, but full of fun. The dramatic feature on tonight's bill is "The Mill By the Snyder Dees," a Domino two reeler. "The Hen's Duckling" is a good Reliance drama.

Thursday "The Slave Girl" will be the big feature. It is a two reel Reliance drama. "Dogsone It" is a Royal comedy. "The Spirit of Up-lift" is a Thanhouser drama.

"His Captive" At Arcana
Tonight

One of those strong Western shows, with all the frills and panache, entitled "His Captive," will be shown at the Arcana theater tonight. This production is sensational, showing the cattle rustlers in their nefarious work. One startling scene is guaranteed to be the most spectacular ever shown. It

JESS WILLARD COMING TO PORTSMOUTH SOON

Portsmouth citizens are shortly to have the opportunity of seeing Jess Willard, the new champion heavy-weight prize fighter of the world.

The big Western cowboy, who some weeks ago wrestled the title from Jack Johnson by defeating the big negro in their battle at Havana, Cuba, on Easter Monday, is the stellar attraction of the 101 Ranch Wild West Show, which will pay Portsmouth a return visit on Monday, June 14th.

Willard gives an exhibition of lariat throwing and has been given a rousing welcome wherever he has appeared since joining the show, which will also Sunday here. The show doubtless will again hold forth in the same place that it did when here last season, namely on the last commons, at Sixteenth and Findlay streets. An advance agent was here Wednesday making necessary arrangements for its coming.

Demurrer Filed

Demurrer to the petition of Alan N. Jordan against the Breeze Manufacturing company was filed in common pleas court Wednesday by Attorneys Blair and Kimble representing the defendant, on the ground that the several causes of action are improperly joined and do not constitute sufficient facts to warrant an action. The motion of the defendant to strike out certain statements in the petition was overruled by Judge Stephenson, Tuesday, with the exception of one point.

Case Dismissed

An entry, dismissing the case of Rosa Cremons against Jennie Dever, an action for damage, was entered upon the common pleas court journal Wednesday, the plaintiff failing to furnish security for the costs. Theodore K. Funk was plaintiff's attorney and Milner, Miller and Searl for defendant.

WOMEN FROM 45 to 55 TESTIFY

To the Merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during Change of Life.

Westbrook, Me. -- "I was passing through the Change of Life and had pains in my back and side and was so weak I could hardly do my housework. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a lot of good. I will recommend your medicine to my friends and give you permission to publish my testimonial."

Mrs. LAWRENCE MARTIN, 12 King St., Westbrook, Maine.

Hanston, Wis. -- "At the Change of Life I suffered with pains in my back and joints until I could not stand. I also had night-sweats so that the sheets would be wet. I tried other medicine but got no relief. After taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use for six months. The pains left me, the night-sweats and hot flashes grew less, and in one year I was a different woman. I know I have to thank you for my continued good health ever since."

Mrs. M. J. BROWNELL, Hanston, Wis.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled in such cases.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

DECISION MAY EFFECT SIXTH ST. EXTENSION OF STREET RAILWAY

Of interest locally is a decision handed down by the Court of Appeals of Hamilton county, Tuesday, in which that part of the General Code which provides that the consent of a majority of the abutting property owners on a street must be secured before council can pass an ordinance providing for the extension of a street car line or the laying of tracks upon that street, was declared unconstitutional.

Properly owners on Bond Hill, Cincinnati, had held up the extension of the street car line in that direction by refusing to give consent to the street railway company, the law requiring that the consent of fifty-one per cent of them must be secured. Several of them went into common pleas court and secured an injunction restraining the street railway company from building the line, which was afterward made permanent. This decision was reversed by the Court of Appeals yesterday. The higher court held that the matter was one solely between the city council and the street railway company. The decision says in part: "The right to consent or withhold consent is not a property right, but a mere personal privilege conferred upon the owner of a majority of foot frontage of the lots and land abutting on the street -- a right withheld from the minority. It affords an opportunity to selfish and non-public spirited property owners on a street to prevent needed transportation facilities to an entire municipality; to inconvenience the public, to check the development of a city."

OHIO RISING AT PARKERSBURG

The Ohio river is not likely to reach any of the new corn planted in the low bottom lands, as seems to be feared in some quarters. The river was falling at all points above Wednesday excepting at Parkersburg, where there was a rise of 2 feet and the only rainfall of any consequence was reported at Zanesville, namely .42. The rainfall at Charleston, W. Va., was only .16 and the Kanawha river was falling. The stage here Wednesday noon was 19.7 ft. and rising but the Scioto river running out Tuesday night was thought to have boosted the stage locally.

REBEKAH MEMORIAL

Mailla Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah at a well attended meeting Tuesday night arranged to hold their annual memorial service jointly with the Odd Fellows next Sunday afternoon, June 6. The committee on arrangements includes Mrs. Mary Boyles, Mrs. Mary Little and Mrs. Elizabeth Latz. Members of the lodge are requested to meet at their hall at 1 o'clock next Sunday afternoon. Graves of the departed members will be strewn with flowers and a short program will be rendered in Greenlawn.

Before the meeting adjourned Mrs. Pearl Rice was elected Noble Grand, Mrs. Anna Hobbetter as Vice Noble Grand and Miss Anna West of Gay street as lodge deputy. The installation services will be held first meeting in July.

Rev. Lindenmeyer Is At Conference

The Rev. Samuel Lindenmeyer, pastor of the German Evangelical church left Wednesday for Cleveland, where he will attend the annual meeting of the Ohio District Conference of the German Evangelical church. W. E. Cook will go as a delegate to the convention Thursday and he will be followed by Will Baehler, who will act as delegate from the German Evangelical Brotherhood of this city. Will Hazelbeck will leave Saturday to attend the meeting. He is the state secretary of the German Evangelical Brotherhood. Geo. Strong will attend this meeting as a visitor.

Musical Tomorrow Night

On account of the inclement weather conditions the Open Air Musicals, which was to be given on the Selby Lawns Thursday, June 3, will be held at Bigelow M. E. church.

The continued rains have made the ground so damp, it is thought hardly expedient to seat guests on the lawn. However, the out of doors effect will be very effectively carried out in the church, and those having tickets need feel no sense of disappointment as an unusual entertainment is assured.

The young ladies are working very diligently to make the affair novel, and the church will be transformed into a fairland of woods and greens. The program is well arranged and in every way the musicals will be out of the ordinary. It is accordingly hoped a large percentage of the people who enjoy good things will be present.

ANOTHER BIG CROWD AT ST. MARY'S COMMENCEMENT

The closing exercises of St. Mary's school commencement were held at St. Mary's hall Tuesday night and were attended by a crowd that completely taxed the capacity of the hall.

The program was carried out without the slightest hitch and at its close Rev. Father T. A. Gochel awarded diplomas to the members of the 1915 graduating class. Certificates and medals were also awarded to the pupils showing proficiency in penmanship and typewriting.

Certificates granted for penmanship in the Palmer method are usually confined to seventh and eighth grade pupils, but little Marie Baum, a fifth grade pupil, was one of those favored with a certificate. A boy pupil of the sixth grade also received a certificate, namely Clifford Bickel. Those receiving Palmer certificates were: Dorothy Hanz, Paul Weber, John Weber, Clifford Bickel, Marie Baum, George Welte, Mary Blair, Gertrude Billian, Alphonse Sommer, Margaret Frantz, Magdalena Glesner, Charlotte Scheller, Rosa Kern, Marcelle Sommer, Adelaide Oriett, Frank Barron.

Certificates and medals for accuracy in the use of type-writers and speed of from 55 to 70 words per minute were also awarded.

Underwood certificates were presented to Vera Seymour, Mary Blair, Paul Yueneger, Fred Briggs, Dorothy Haug, George Welte, Gertrude Billian and Rosa Kern.

Remington medals were presented to Rosa Kern, Dorothy Haug, Gertrude Billian, Vera Seymour, Paul Yueneger and Mary Blair.

The beautiful electrical effects used in the entertainment was the clever and artistic work of John Sommer, a last year's graduate of the school, and son of George Sommer.

"Golden Wedding" To Be Celebrated

Fifty years of happily wedded life are to be celebrated June 11 by Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hart of Upper Sandusky, Ohio, who are the parents of Mrs. B. W. Beery, 1850 Eighteenth street, Portsmouth. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hart have frequently visited in Portsmouth and have a wide circle of friends who join in extending congratulations at the advent of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Concerning their married life the Toledo Times has the following to say:

"Upper Sandusky, Ohio. -- 'Sure, I feel just as young as I did 50 years ago,' declared Stephen J. Hart, 71, at his home here Saturday.

"And you may say that I, too, am just a mere girl. I feel that way, just like the traditional 'sweet sixteen.' Now don't forget to say that Stephen will sing in the choir Sunday," was the rejoinder of Mrs. Lydia Hart.

"And so, from this happy couple there emanated these remarks as a prelude to the celebration of their golden wedding anniversary which will take place at the old homestead here June 11. A great party that will be. Friends and intimate acquaintances from various sections of northern Ohio, and other states, have been invited to attend. The Toledo resident, a son, John Hart, is arranging for a menu that will undoubtedly furnish sufficient nourishment for 10 men for two weeks.

"Mr. Hart's diversion is singing. He is the proud possessor of a rich baritone voice. He has been a member of the choirs of churches in Lancaster, Pa., Elizabethtown, Pa., and at Upper Sandusky, for 34 years continuously. During that time, save illness, he has always used his musical ability on Sunday. He now is and has been singing in St. Peter's Catholic church here. This record probably has no equal.

"I am never happy unless I sing on Sunday in the choir," Mr. Hart says.

"Mrs. Hart is one of the best known residents here, and by her quiet charity and her ministrations to the indigent, known by only a few, has won for her a high regard in the estimation of the population. She has always been a friend of the down-and-outs, and many a man--and there are lots of them who compose the flotsam and jetsam of humanity--has walked from her door with a welcome lunch in his pocket.

"The visit was friendly and cordial. While Count Bernstorff was in the Blue Room with the president the Italian ambassador, Count Marochi di Velleire, arrived but the two diplomats, whose nations are on opposite sides in the war did not meet.

Reports that the ambassador had made any definite proposals were generally discounted. The president has already begun the preparation of the next note to Germany and it was not expected that the call of the ambassador would have any material effect on either its sense or its wording.

Immediately after his visit to the White House, Count Bernstorff returned to the embassy and went into conference with the head of the chancellery. It appeared that he was about to communicate with Berlin.

There were born six children as follows: Harry, John, Anna, who was Mrs. Jerome DeShon, of Toledo, (deceased); Mrs. Bert W. Beery, of Portsmouth, O.; Mrs. Adam Burkholder, Upper Sandusky; Stephen Hart, of Marion, Ohio.

WILSON DEMANDS PEACE

they wish to see utter ruin come upon her and they deem it their duty as friends and neighbors to lend any aid they properly can to any instrumentality which promises to be effective in bringing about a settlement which will embody the real objects of the revolution--constitutional government and the rights of the people. Patriotic Mexicans are sick at heart and cry out for peace and for every self sacrifice that may be necessary to procure it. Their people cry out for good and will presently hate as much they fear every man in their country or out of it, who stands between them and their daily bread.

It is time therefore, that the government of the United States should frankly state the policy which in these extraordinary circumstances it becomes its duty to adopt. It must presently do what it has not hitherto done or felt at liberty to do, lend its active moral support to some man or group of men, if such may be found, who really the suffering people of Mexico to their support in an effort to ignore, if they cannot unite, the warring factions of the country, return to the constitution of the republic so long in abeyance and set up a government at Mexico City which the great powers of

RESISTANCE TO DISEASE

The power of your body to resist disease is not to fight it after disease gets a foothold in one of the most precious possessions you have.

You weaken this power when you let your general health run down, your blood gets thin and your nerves mischievous. You weaken it when you are overworked or are guilty of excesses of all kinds. You weaken it when you do not get sufficient sleep and when you are undernourished, either because you do not eat the right kind of food or because your digestion is out of order.

You preserve your power to resist disease when you keep your food and your power food at regular intervals and are temperate in all things. You increase and strengthen it when you build up your blood and nerves by the timely use of a tonic like Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, free from alcohol, opiates and harmful drugs of any kind.

Give your pills and careful attention to your diet will go far toward keeping you in health. "Two breakfasts," "Building up the blood" and "What to Eat and How to Eat," contain just the information you need and will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. LAWRENCE SECREST'S SKULL HAD BEEN CRUSHED; MURDER SUSPECTED

Confirming the article in The Times that relatives of Lawrence Secrest believe he was murdered, the Enquirer today says:

Relatives of Lawrence Secrest, aged 22 years, who was found dead in a rooming house at 215 East Ninth street last Monday, a supposed suicide, now believe he may have been murdered.

Secrest was thought to have swallowed carbolic acid in a fit of despondency. His lips were burned with the poison. An empty bottle that had evidently contained carbolic acid lay near the body.

Harry R. Secrest, grocer, of 953 West Sixth street, was not reconciled to the self-destruction theory. His opinion was unshaken by the circumstantial evidence that his son took his own life. The father had two surgeons at Concord, Ky., examine the body before burial at that place.

It was announced yesterday that the doctors found that two bones in the skull had not only been fractured, but smashed, presumably by a powerful blow with some heavy weapon.

Physicians were unable to find traces of carbolic acid in the victim's stomach.

Coroner Poerlmeier did not perform a post-mortem.

Secrest came back to Cincinnati yesterday with the stomach. He gave it to Dr. Frank Cain, of the Queen City College, Lyric theatre building, for chemical analysis. Dr. Cain requested Chemist Louis Werner, of 919 Race street, to make the examination. Werner will not be able to furnish the test until the end of the week.

The mystery, according to Secrest's father, is heightened by the disappearance of a diamond ring reported to be worth $100, and a gold watch that the dental student had among his effects before the tragedy.

At the dental college Secrest was considered a bright student. If Secrest was attacked it is possible, his relatives say, that it happened when he left the rooming house. They doubt that he could have fallen heavily enough to crush his skull.

Whether Secrest committed suicide or was murdered will be established, Dr. Cain asserts, by the report of the chemist.

GERMANY SAYS SOLDIERS MUST SHUN THE SALOONS

Berlin, June 2 (via London).—

The military authorities have issued an order applicable to Berlin forbidding both officers and private soldiers from visiting "the luxurious restaurants and cafes" in Berlin as well as all bars and wine rooms. The order points out that the purpose of furloughs granted officers and men—physical recovery from the rigors of life at the front and the recuperation of nerves and bodies—is endangered by visits to these restaurants and wine rooms. A number of West End resorts catering especially to the military will be hit hard by this regulation.

WOMAN A CANDIDATE FOR D. OF L. DEGREE

New York, June 2.—For the first time in the history of Columbia University a woman was a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Laws conferred today at the annual commencement exercises. Louise Lee Schuyler, the founder of the State Charities Aid Association and originator of the first American training school for nurses was chosen for that honor. She is a great-granddaughter of Alexander Hamilton. Other candidates selected for honorary degrees at Columbia included: Doctor of Laws: Hugh L. Scott, major general and chief of staff, U. S. A.; Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France.

American Princess Asks For Divorce

New York, June 2.—Papers in a divorce suit brought by the Princess Evelyn Engalitcheff, formerly Miss Evelyn Partridge, of Chicago, against Prince Nicholas Engalitcheff of Russia were on file in the office of county clerk here today. Although papers were served upon the prince when he arrived here Monday from France, news of the suit did not become public until today.

The princess, who was the daughter of C. W. Partridge, a Chicago merchant, seeks restoration of her maiden name and the custody of her son, 13 years old. The prince was connected with the Russian consulate at Chicago in 1898 when he met and married Miss Partridge.

U. S. SHIPS GO IN FOR REPAIRS

New York, June 2.—The most powerful warships of the Atlantic fleet will be assembled in the Brooklyn navy yard before the end of this week for drydock and repairs. The battleship Florida and ten destroyers were in the yard today and the Wyoming and Texas were in the harbor waiting to enter the yard. The battleship New York is undergoing a general overhauling and will be in the navy yard for three months. Most of the other warships will be ready to leave by July 1 or earlier.

CHECK FOR $65,000,000 DEPOSITED

New York, June 2.—A check for $65,000,000, regarded by New York bankers as the largest ever drawn in this country, was deposited to the credit of the Pennsylvania railroad company in a local bank today. It was drawn by Kuhn, Loeb and company yesterday in payment for general mortgage for bonds issued by the railroad company and sold on public subscription after being underwritten by a syndicate formed by officials of the Pennsylvania in the bank on which it was drawn.

CLOSE CHURCH MEET

Loveland, Colo., June 2.—Delegates to the 57th General Assembly of the United Presbyterian church of North America today departed for their homes following a night session at which the business of the assembly was disposed of. The assembly thus terminated one day earlier than the program indicated. The 1916 meeting of the general assembly will be held in Cleveland.

CHINESE VIEW N. Y.

Rome, June 2.—The famous gilded horses which have adorned for a century the principal portal of the cathedral of St. Marks at Venice have been removed from the city to a place of safety because of the fear that they might be damaged by hostile aviators or warships.

ALLEGED SLAYER OF BAUCUS IS STILL FREE; OFFICERS ARE BAFFLED

Henry Glenn, alias "High Yaller," the alleged gun-man in the Baucus murder case, was still at large Wednesday morning with no certain prospect of his early capture.

The police officials are hopeful that Baldwin detectives may succeed in picking him up at one of the many labor camps that he is known to frequent along the line of the N. & W. railway.

Jones and Smith, who are imprisoned in the police station, both wrote letters Tuesday evening, the former to his wife in Cincinnati and the other to his father and sister in Florida explaining their present plight. The latter asked each of his two relatives for $25. He made reference to his connection with the murder and the police officials therefore had him write a duplicate copy of the letter which will be preserved as evidence along with his confession.

Jones or Smith have not seen each other since they were locked up at the city prison. Neither knows what the other has confessed to and as their respective stories tally in all of the important details the officials naturally feel that their statements are bona-fide and that the mystery, which so long surrounded the slaying murder of James A. Baucus, the N. & W. detective and former police chief, in the East Portsmouth yards, Sunday night, December 6, 1914 has at last been cleared up.

The Cincinnati authorities have been advised of some clues that in the past have been frequented by "High Yaller" and asked to keep them under surveillance.

A. R. Pittman, chief agent of the Baldwin-Felts Detective Agency, is expected here from Roanoke, Va. Thursday to assist in the hunt for "High Yaller."

DELIVERY AUTO RUNS OFF; BADLY SMASHED

To demonstrate that DePalma and his Mercedes car had nothing on the Ford when it came to starting, the Ford delivery truck of the Central Grocery company made a wild dash for one square in Twenty-first street at 10:30 Wednesday morning and did not stop until it lay at the bottom of the fifteen foot embankment at Twenty-first street and Sunrise avenue, one square east of Waller street. William Clark, driver of the delivery car, stopped in front of the C. M. Weyand home on Twenty-first street to deliver some groceries. While he was in the house the car started on its rampage. On coming out Clark was surprised to find the car missing. His first thought being that someone had stolen it. On investigating he found the car had run over the embankment at the end of the street, turning completely over and smashing the top and windshield.

BIG RAINFALL

Word was received from up the Scioto Valley Wednesday morning that that section experienced one of its heaviest rains in years Tuesday night. The downpour was especially heavy in the vicinity of Chillicothe. Portsmouth was also visited by a deluge about midnight, which continued unabated for about thirty minutes, being accompanied by a thunder storm and lightning. It was the heaviest rain storm of the present wet spell.

Black and white is a popular combination this spring, more popular than for a long time, and some very elegant expressions of this combination are seen in some of the newest frocks. Take the gown illustrated, for instance. It is of white chiffon made very full as to skirt, with a tight bodice of black velvet. The sleeves are of white chiffon and a huge upstanding ruche adds to the quaint effect. The skirt has a deep band of the black velvet.

Illustrated is a good looking blouse of white georgette crepe, simply made and trimmed with a strip of lace at the front. Satin covered ball buttons lead a smart touch to the waist. Such a blouse as this is a great convenience for it may be worn on many occasions. It is not too dressy for office wear and is still smart enough in appearance to be worn at a luncheon or afternoon affair.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, gossip, news, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 80, Residence A-80.

Dear Dolly—Please tell me if it is improper to make a date with a boy on the street corner when my parents won't allow him to come to the house? I am 17.

MARJORIE.
Of course it is Marjorie. No girl should consent to meet a boy clandestinely whom she is not permitted to entertain in her home. Have too much respect for yourself to do anything like that. If your parents will not permit the boy to come to the house, abide by their decision. You are much too young to have a steady anyway.

Dear Dolly—How late is it permissible for a 15 year old girl to remain out at night? I just mean on ordinary nights, and not when I go to some place of amusement that keeps me out till 10:30 or 11 o'clock?

HAZEL.
A girl of your age has no excuse for being out after night at all unless she is with her parents or some member of the family and they will see that she gets home at a reasonable hour.

Dear Dolly—I know a very nice young man. I would like to have him for a steady, but he doesn't seem to pay much attention to me. What can I do to make him like me? He talks nice to me every time I meet him on the street. Do you think he loves me?
GERTIE.
Why should you think a man is in love with you just because he stops and talks to you a minute or two when he meets you on the street. Poor boy if he knew how crazy you were about him I imagine he would take to his heels the minute he laid eyes on you. Men do not want a girl who wants them first. Get that into your head and keep it there, first, last and all the time. Be a sensible little girl, Gertie, and let the man do the love making if there is any to be made.

Dear Dolly—What would be nice for a simple wedding breakfast for a husband and wife and her family only?
BRIDE-TO-BE.
Serve chicken patties, creamed peas, biscuits, coffee, olives, assorted nuts, an ice cake.

Dear Dolly—Is it proper for a girl to call upon a boy who is ill?
LITTLE ONE.
It depends upon the circumstances, Little One—the nature of the sickness and how intimate the friendship. If your mother is acquainted with this family you might accompany her to your friend's home and inquire about his health. As a rule company is barred from a sick room.

Dear Dolly—I have a mother who is very strict with me. She always wants me to do things I don't like to do, and she does not want me to run around and have a good time. Is that right?
STURBORN GIRL.
Obey your mother and do not do the things she objects to. You will have plenty of time to have your own way when you are of age. Shame on you to talk like that about your mother.

Anxious Lady—If your friend has had one drunken husband she knows what she will have to put up with if she marries another, so I wouldn't bother my head about her if I were you. She won't thank you for your advice anyway.

Dear Dolly—I am a girl of 30 and have such awful dark circles under my eyes that I would like to get rid of them. And listen, Dolly, are they hereditary or are they due to ill health? My mother also had dark circles about her eyes, also tell me what to do to make the circles keep from growing down over my finger nails, and what will make hollow cheeks fat?
A READER.
If the dark circles are hereditary, you cannot do much to remove them. If they have but recently made their appearance, they may be due to overwork, lack of sleep or some internal trouble. You should investigate the cause, so that you can remove the circles. For the first two allments the remedy is within your grasp, but for the latter you will have to consult a physician. Apply olive oil or cold cream to the circles surrounding the nails. Either of these will soften the skin so that it may be easily pushed back with the blunt end of an orange stick. Do the work gently so that you do not injure the nails and cause white spots to appear on them.

Apply a liberal amount of cocoa butter and then massage the face, always rubbing the cheeks upward.

Beautiful in all the details was the pink luncheon given by Mrs. James Patterson at one o'clock today at the Washington Hotel, honoring Mrs. Charles Lacey, of Havana, Ill., charming guest of Mrs. Wade S. Kennedy. The delicious menu of several courses was beautifully served in the ordinary. The table was adorned with a large French basket of pink carnations and baskets of pink carnations and pink daisies, the handle tied with a bow of pink tulle, and pink shaded candles added much to the attractive burl, where curers were laid for Madam Charles Lacey, Wade S. Kennedy, Archibald Somerville, George Mytinger, D. A. Bernell, Charles Spencer, P. E. Selby, A. E. Howard, F. C. Goodwin, Edgar Hill, of Charleston, W. Va., A. E. Powell and James Patterson. Triangular boxes, decorated with pink roses, with places for the names and filled with delicate bouquets, answered for the place cards, as well as the dainty favors. The luncheon was one of the most delightful of this season's many parties.

Rev. J. E. Gordon solemnized the marriage of Earl Schellen, a McDermott young man, and Miss Vashli George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry George, of Navajo, at the parsonage in Navajo at noon Tuesday. COCOANUT OIL MAKES A SPLENDID SHAMPOO

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. Then use two teaspoons of coconut oil. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to comb.

You can get mulsified coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

The beautiful new country home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gilliland, of Dover Valley, was the scene of a large gathering Friday evening, when a miscellaneous shower was given in honor of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burton. The shower, which was a complete surprise, was arranged by Miss Betha Grant, a close friend of the bride, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Pickett. There were about sixty-five present and the young couple were showered with china, cut-glass, granite, silverware, porcelain, nickel, aluminum and linen. One of the most beautiful presents was a quilt, the gift of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Burton. The house was made doubly attractive with decorations of ferns and roses, and the guests, who filled every room, passed the evening very pleasantly with music, singing and games. Miss Blanche Gilliland, sister of the bride, and Miss Betha Grant rendered the music. The evening passed very pleasantly and at 12 o'clock lunch of chicken sandwiches, pickles, cake, candy and ice cream were served by the hostesses, after which all departed for their homes, wishing the young couple a long and happy wedded life. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Stevens and two children, Margaret and Marion, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Dever and two children, Guy and Clyde, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jackson and children, Raymond and Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Burton and children, Oscar, John and Mary Ann, Rev. and Mrs. Bostick and children, Paul and Kenneth, Mrs. S. B. Gilliland, Mrs. D. E. Every Woman in Portsmouth Knows It

Men wouldn't do the family washing!

Why, bless your hearts, they wouldn't even put up with the steam and smells of washday—let alone doing the ironing!

Which reminds us of the Illinois man who said: "Don't catch me sending my shirts to the laundry, sister Em's a dandy ironer."

Fine compliment to Em, wasn't it?

And there are plenty of sister Em's right here in Portsmouth.

This summer try the easy way—let us do the family wash—the difference in cost isn't enough to mention.

LOCALS MADE IT THREE IN ROW FROM FRANKFORT

Tuesday's Battle Turned Into Victory; Score Was 6 To 3

COMING from behind is getting to be a diversion, yes almost a habit with the Portsmouth team. Overhauling Frankfort, who had acquired a three run lead the Spencerites soon passed their worthy adversaries and were never headed, taking the third game at Millbrook Tuesday from the orange-hosed Kentuckians, 6 to 3. The game was finished in a drizzling rain and only a few fans saw it because of unfavorable atmospheric conditions. However, the playing field was in tip top shape as very little rain fell in New Boston Monday night and Tuesday and had the fans known this the crowd would no doubt have been much larger.

Determined to make a better showing, Manager Bohannon trotted out his ace in a pitching way, Craig getting the managerial nod to warm up as it was his day to walk majestically to the mound and show the town boys from Ohio just what a real pitcher looks like.

Well, fans, this Auburn-haired youth stepped along some for four innings and looked to be in for a swell day, but when his support began to peel off at the sides Craig let down and the stuff was soon off. The total blow came in the sixth when Hall permitted Spencer's fly to soar over his head for three runs. Hall clearly misjudged the ball in his brain and when he saw his mistake he could not get back to the ball. The crowd roared and the Kentuckians were subsequently roused when Craig sent a sacrifice fly to Bohannon. The play strongly illustrated the luck that camps on the trail of the infielders. Ordinarily that would have settled under the hit, but he missed it and his team went down with his mistake in a bunch of canaries just turned loose in a five and ten the Old Taylors gave Mr. Test a royal reception at the get-away.

They pointed in two runs and Test began to see something that resembled the old family book, but he gently shook his head and when the Good Ship Spencer sighted itself Test steamed into the port of success with Frankfort hit a mine in the sixth and went down with a great loss of life, yes life is right, for in this inning Frankfort lost all of the pepper the Kentuckians ever displayed. Well, what happened in this inning? Just a moment please, don't push.

Kimbles stepped up to the plate as the new lead-off man for the Old Taylors. He looked at four wide ones, smiled at Test and soon was in Spencerland. Hoffmann promptly sacrificed, Test to Spencer. Hall fanned. Then the can-announcing started. Bill Bang (Bill) Angermier singled sharply to right. Bohannon pointed one to center and Test were just to show that he was given to impartiality whaled one to left. Kimble and Angermier scoring. Bruder prevented further scoring by lifting one to Duff.

Portsmouth did not break into the run column until the fifth. Spencer for a starter filed to Bohannon. Caton was passing the ball and no time was lost after two new balls had been tossed out. Wagoner pointed one to center. Test scored on McIlwain's hit to center. Test rolled one down to Thomas and he threw it past first, McIlwain racing over. Duff was out Craig to first.

Frankfort made its third and last tally in the fifth on an error, a two sucker by Kimble and an out. Portsmouth forced ahead in the sixth when Billy walked, was moved up a base on Spencer's sacrifice and scored on McIlwain's safe rap to right. Spencer then tripled to right, Mills reaching. Spencer was soon over when Caton sent a sacrifice fly into the waiting hands of Bohannon.

In the closing innings Frankfort did not threaten as Test was going along at full speed and had the old hook curve working like a clock. He pitched a crafty game and showed considerable stamina under fire as the Frankfort team employed everything in a baseball coach's repertoire to rattle the local twirler, but Test very gamely let the flow of shales roll right off his back. Your sharp double plays enlivened the game in a fielding way. Fans, these are real ball games. Go out and appreciate your baseball appetite. Take a chance on the weather. Don't be timid as a game will be played unless there is a downpour. Go out and see today's game as the Spencerites will take the

Frankfort Fans Should Not Get Discouraged

Frankfort fans should not become discouraged over the showing of the Old Taylors who have captured but one game out of 16 played in the Ohio State League.

If the fans of that city are made of the proper stuff they will look upon the situation with considerable calmness and hope for better things in the future.

The writer believes that no better or more intelligent fans live, move and have their being than right here in the city of Portsmouth.

They have proven their loyalty, and as a result several pennants have been their portion at the end of the race.

The writer would call the conditions upon Frankfort fans to the conditions upon which Portsmouth broke into the Ohio State League. If memory is not at fault, the Springfield team was transferred to this city in 1908, and for the balance of that season was piloted by Edward Ransick, a prince of good fellows, and one who did his best to put Portsmouth on the baseball map.

The team won the first game by the score of 3 to 2, and the town was hazy with belief, the "Shrimakers" would climb out of the cellar, a place they occupied when transferred. Out instead of climbing, they were like the cat in the well which climbed up two feet in the day time and fell back three feet at night. They never saw daylight, being so deeply imbedded in the basement when the hell lapped that they were right on the borders of China, knocking at the door of the yellow men.

Worse than that the team had one of the longest losing streaks on record, dropping 21 straight games.

Did Portsmouth fans wait and gnash their teeth? They did not. Instead they rallied to the team as one man at last, the Springfield team was transferred to this city in 1908, and for

Some Clouters

"Spencer hasn't anything on Shorman" as a hitter," said a fan returning from Tuesday's game.

"Well, Shorman hasn't anything on Spencer either," replied another fan, "Well what has Spencer done the past two days?"

"Why he has secured five hits," "Well, so has Shorman."

And the old dope book backs up their statements. Some clouters, these while, based, argus-eyed warriors.

May Go To Denver

It is reported in baseball circles in Columbus that Johnny Shovin will be sent to the Denver club. He has been doing bench duty for the past two weeks. Peppery Johnny had a hard time getting into his batting stride this spring and when he failed to round into form he was sent to the bench.

Turns Back ON PATTERN

So effective was Test's pitching that Frankfort went out in order in the third, fourth, sixth, seventh and eighth innings yesterday. In the ninth Dymkowski got on with two outs, but Kimble lofted gently to Spencer. The Kentuckians tried hard to get Test's goat, but the student-pitcher was too wise to fall for the patter that emanated from the gabby coaches.

Is Matty All In?

Many fans in the east believe that Charley Mathewson is going over the hill, that is as a pitcher. They say he has lost all of his pitching wares and if he gets by it will be because of his head rather than his arm. The same thing was said about Christy Mathewson five years ago.

FOUR DOUBLE PLAYS

Four rapid fire double plays were skillfully executed Tuesday, which shows how sharp the fielding was behind Craig and Test. The homers were decided, each team clipping off two double plays, the pretties being the one executed by Hoffbauer when he lashed in a smoking liner, drove for the bag and beat Angermier to it. Hoffbauer smacked the pill on awful crack, but Billy speared it and converted it into a double killing.

Players Are Paid

Members of the Portsmouth team were all smiles Tuesday evening. The usual walked and for a few days at least they will have all kinds of the old single stuff. Pay days in the local baseball camp always roll around on the first and fifteenth.

A chess observer insists that the Giants are waiting until July to make a real dash for the top in order to emulate the feat accomplished last season by the Braves.

Continuous Rains Cut Into Receipts

The weather man certainly has a grouse on these days. He absolutely refuses to turn on a little sunshine for the players and fans. A box of some sort is camping on the trail of all the leagues in the country, there being more postponed games so far this season than ever before known.

It drizzled rain from the fifth inning on Tuesday, but Empire Park made the athletes continue their work and the game was cooled off in 1:35. The weather man it so seems has conspired to put an awful crimp in the receipts of the big leagues as well as the minor leagues and unless the hoodoo is soon shaken off there is no telling what is going to happen.

For instance to date the Reds are $25,000 back of last year's receipts at this time and most of the deficit is traceable to the atrocious weather.

Portsmouth fans are going to get behind the "pencories" and see a lot of games just as soon as the weather breaks.

Every since the season started the weather has been against the game and the fans have not had a chance to really get a line on the revamped team. If Old Test will just get on the job and stay on it some time crowds will turn out to greet the boys and to cheer the fancy plays. The one redeeming feature this year is that some of the teams are burdened with high salaried players. Surely there will soon be a rift in the clouds.

Dope Pot Upset

The Braves are commonly supposed to be the strongest team in the East, while the Cubs are said to hold the edge in the West. When the two sections met together it was the Hobbits in Brooklyn and the Cardinals who made the best showing. This ever and anon does the grand old dope skin with great abandon.

One Bottle Holds Two Glasses of Sparkling

Cliequot Club

Made in America GINGER ALE Best in the World

ENOUGH in each bottle to quench, drench and drown two ordinary thirsts or a double-barreled shot to bring down the big man's size thirst that you bring back from the tennis courts or the ball game.

Being made of real ginger it's safe—even beneficial—when your blood is overheated. And Cliequot is pure—pure spring water flowing from bed-rock into sterilized bottles—pure granulated sugar, pure juices of lemons and limes.

The Cliequot Spring water is slightly laxative. Cliequot Club Ginger Ale mixes well with most anything drinkable.

For sale by Good Grocers and Druggists. Order a case and keep a few bottles on the ice.

Fine Services Held At Lucasville, O.

Memorial Day services at Lucasville Sunday were among the most impressive ever held in the village, the observance being universal among the residents. Arrangements were in charge of Ellsworth Post, G. A. R.

The exercises opened at one o'clock Sunday afternoon with a parade, headed by the drum corps, followed by the members of the G. A. R., each wearing flowers, the Shawnee Camp Fire Girls in their ceremonial dresses of brown blaki and with armbands of flowers, the Improved Order of Red Men in their regalia of red and blue, and a delegation of school children. A delegation from the Salt Creek Sunday school also participated in the exercises.

Short services were held at the cemetery prior to the decoration of the graves. Rev. Reuben Boring, chaplain of the post, opened with a prayer, which closed with an appeal for a soldiers' pardon. William Stone read the G. A. R. ritual service. After the services the Camp Fire Girls, accompanied by the veterans, threw flowers on the graves of the dead heroes.

Puts Stomach, Liver and Bowels in Fine Condition

To promptly cure the misery of constipation, torpid liver, sick headache, indigestion, dizziness and nausea, you must use CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. They are sold everywhere. Why millions use them. Vain, vigor, vitality, and a clear complexion are the result of their use. You need them. Small pill, small dose, small price. The GENUINE must bear signature.

VEGETABLE CALOMEL

Vegetable calomel, extract of the root of the old-fashioned may-apple plant, does not salivate. As a liver stimulant, it's great. It's a perfect substitute for ordinary calomel (mercury); in fact, it's better, because its action is gentle instead of severe and irritating—and it leaves no mean, disagreeable after-effects. Physicians recognize this and prescribe may-apple root (rhaparilla, they call it) daily. Combined with four other standard, all-vegetable remedies, may-apple root may now be had at most any drugstore in convenient sugar-coated tablets form by asking for Sentinel Laxatives. If you forget the name, ask for the box that has the picture of the soldier on it. These tablets are small, easy to take, and are really wonderful! They perform their duty. They quickly clean out the poisons that are causing you headache, constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, dizzy spells, bad breath and coated tongue. They are mild. They never gripe. And they are a bowel tonic as well as a cleanser and liver regulator. A 10c box should last one several weeks. A Physician's trial package (4 doses) will be mailed you free if you write mentioning this advertisement to The Sentinel Remedies Co., 802 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

Y. W. C. A. MAKES REAL "HOME" FOR MANY GIRLS

Have you ever been through the residence of the Young Women's Christian association here in our city? It is the beautiful building located on the southeast corner of Second and Gay streets; and is given over entirely to the making of life home for a large family of girls, on a self-supporting basis. The association building is a combination building, in that it serves as boarding home, class room, recreation and club room, embodying as it does the whole association idea. Under the roof of this commodious Y. W. C. A. residence, many girls in the past three years have found the nearest approach to home-life possible, away from home or family. In the morning they have a substantial breakfast and leave for work with a sing in their hearts. At night after a stiff day's work in office, store or factory, there is good cheer in the dining room and a good time afterward in the living room around the piano, the reading table or the fire-place. When bedtime comes, each girl finds rest for body and mind in her cozy bedroom.

The association residence is a very bright, hospitable place where the girl, if she wishes, may play hostess to her young man friend. Charming small rooms have been arranged to meet this and other normal needs of the girls. For the girl who finds it hard to make ends meet, there is the laundry in which she can do her washing whenever she feels strong enough to tackle it. Under the inspirations of the clever house-mother or an enterprising fellow-boarder, many of the girls find themselves adding to the purchasing power of their wages by making some of their own clothing in the sewing room. If mind and body are both too weary for any such thrifty effort, comfort and rest can be had with magazines and books in the living room or in the girls' own rooms. The association house committee has the devoted interest and service of women who know and understand the girl who earns her living and whom to understand is to love, and if need be, to forgive. The secretaries, too, understand girls, their problems and moods, and succeed in establishing bonds between themselves and each one of their family which few strains can break. Through the secretaries many a girl comes to her first understanding of her personal responsibility for the use of her life; and many a girl with ambition hitherto dormant, finds herself spurred to push onward to test herself for unsuspected ability, fed by the inspiration of some one who believes in her.

The Young Women's Christian association sign, hanging in front of the building flashing out in vivid letters by day or night, is itself a pledge of sisterliness, and fails to meet the expectation of all, yet in its very name lies a spirit of inexhaustible helpfulness.

Ashland Hopes For New "Coal" Railway

Ashland, Ky., June 2.—The recent visit of the D. T. & I. head officials to Ashland and their trip over the A. C. & I. has revived the report that the D. T. & I. will buy the A. C. & I. road and extend the same from Denton up the Big Sandy in order to reach the coal fields. While the visiting railway officials stated that their visit here was made with the purpose of becoming better acquainted with the business men of Ashland, the road's new terminal, persons in close touch with railway matters say that the visit had a fair degree of significance, namely the extension of the A. C. & I. and the building of the bridge between Ashland and Ironton, the piers for which are already in place. This would mean great things for Ashland, including as it would the shops and additional passenger and freight service. Some developments are looked for at an early date.

"PETE" HAS A SUBMARINE

Amid those rival hostile fleets of Joe Schreck and Tom Burt, a West End citizen rises to remark that Pete Hartman has the only submarine, for his vessel is still down. (Editor's Note—Hartman's motor boat sank last summer and was never recovered. Incidentally Geo. Wurster's boat, Box-all.)

Meeker Speaks At Ashland, Ky.

Says the Ashland Independent: "The address of Jacob B. Meeker, of St. Louis, who spoke Saturday evening from a platform on Greenup avenue and 18th street, was well attended, and Mr. Meeker was given close attention for nearly two hours during which he talked upon 'The Fallacies and Failures of Prohibition.' Toward the end of Mr. Meeker's address a man asked the speaker a question and was answered by him. Mr. Meeker then asked the man some personal questions concerning his past life and at several times afterwards referred to him in no complimentary terms. 'When Mr. Meeker had finished, the man mounted the platform and started to make a speech, but had said only a few words when Officer Green placed him under arrest and took him to police headquarters, where he was placed in jail on a charge of intoxication and disorderly conduct.'

YOUNG LADY DUCKED

Lucile Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Clark, of 1022 Eighth street, received a ducking in Millbrook park lake Monday afternoon. Miss Clark, Miss Isabelle Staten, Theodore Ribble and Ralph Thomas were out boating, and near the Casino Miss Clark leaned too far over the side of the boat and tumbled in. Ralph Thomas proved to be the hero of the day when he pulled Miss Clark back into the boat.

New Law Punishes The "Deaf" Fakirs

William Cooper, of 337 Second street, has addressed a letter to the police officials expressing appreciation on behalf of the deaf mutes of the city for having arrested Henry Lee, a negro, who passed himself off as "deaf and dumb" a few days ago. He also encloses a copy of the new law passed by the recent legislature providing a penalty of a fine of $100 or imprisonment in the county jail or workhouse for six months, or both, for any person to falsely represent himself or herself as blind, deaf, dumb or crippled. This law becomes effective August 5th. Mr. Cooper offers to co-operate with the police in bringing any and all such impostors to justice.

Holy Redeemer Exercises Tonight

The annual commencement exercises of the Holy Redeemer school will be held in the high school auditorium tonight (Wednesday) night, June 2. First Aid To The Mothers

We are endeavoring to make our new infants' department an institution of real benefit to the motherhood of this community. This department, placed as it is in a section rather private, and stocked with everything babies need, affords mothers the desired privilege of selecting baby's garments in seclusion.

In connection with mere merchandising in infants' wear, we are going further and are offering to mothers every assistance in the care of their babies it is possible for us to give, through accurate and professional information as given by the highest authorities.

The care of the infant is indeed an important work and every mother should have placed at her disposal the most expert instructions obtainable. There are about three hundred thousand infants, less than one year old, who die every year in the United States and half this mortality is unnecessary. If more mothers would know more about babies this death rate would be decreased.

If A Stenographer Does not Know about Her Work, She Loses Her Job. If A Mother Does Not Know About Her Baby, She Loses Her Baby.

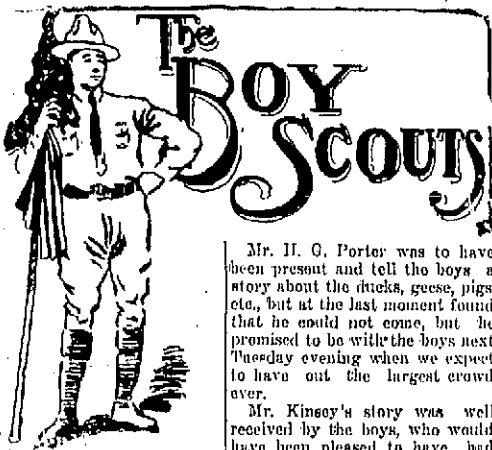

In this new infants' section we are offering absolutely free different copies of works on the care of the babies by experts in this line, and we will be glad to furnish any mother with copies of these. One especially, entitled "SAVE THE BABIES" by the famous infant specialists, Dr. L. Emmet Holt and Dr. Harry L. K. Shaw. This booklet is published by the American Medical Association, and any mother may have one free with our compliments by calling at the department.

This department is furnished with baby scales on which any mother may have her infant weighed free at any time. We will also give you a chart on which to keep a record of baby's weight.

This infant section is intended as a help to mothers. You will please us if you use it. (Second floor, Annex.)

Mr. H. C. Porter was to have been present and tell the boys a story about the ducks, geese, pigs, etc., but at the last moment found that he could not come, but he promised to be with the boys next Tuesday evening when we expect to have out the largest crowd ever. Mr. Kinsey's story was well received by the boys, who would have been pleased to have had him talk longer. Mr. Kinsey's subject was "Testing the Boy." Mr. Ridenour's story "The Superstitious Negro" was well received. The Second Presbyterian troop promises to be one of the largest in the city. The program for next Tuesday is a good one and you will miss it if you are not on hand. Boys Run Away

The police received a message from John Wessel, of Ironton, Tuesday night asking them to keep a lookout for his son and grand-son, who he reported ran away from home Sunday. He thought that they might be found at the home of his brother, Ex-Policeman Fred Wessel, of 2319 Eighth street. Inquiry developed that they were not at that home.

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion.

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion is nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which irritate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour fumes, belch gas or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash, or nausea. He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass start the liver, stimulate the kidney and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices. Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

PROBE IN COKE CASES STILL ON; POLICE NEWS

Careful inquiry made in police court Wednesday tended to show that How Parah, Theodore Conely and Arthur Chappel were rather victims of the habit than peddlers of cocaine and their cases were therefore continued.

Frome Hollingsworth waxed warm because Boss Hurd was absent, she declaring that it was Boss who kept her supplied with the "coke." Asked if she had ever bought any from the defendants present she replied sharply, "They all look alike to me." She was ordered to remain about until Boss could be located but when court adjourned she boldly quit the building only to be overtaken by Turnkey Joe Stokley.

Jim Funk, a carpenter, who was arrested for alleged smashing things in general at his home, was fined $5 and at the request of his wife and other relatives, ordered held for a week, they agreeing to keep him supplied with food. It was also their request that he be made to stay away from home after his release from custody.

Grant Allen and Frank Holt were fined $10 each for "rushing a beer can" in Paradise alley. Frank Thompson, who was picked up on Chillicothe street by Officer Linck, was fined $5 for drunkenness.

ITCHING ECZEMA COVERED ENTIRE BODY, RESINOL CURED

Could Not Sleep. 8 Remedies had Failed. Resinol Stopped Itching Immediately.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 11, 1914.—"My entire body, even my eyelids, was completely covered with itches as large as a pea. When one would burst water would come from it, and then it would turn into a very painful sore. The burning and itching were something terrible, and I COULD NOT SLEEP nor rest. I think I had one of the worst cases of eczema a human being ever had. "I used eight different kinds of remedies without success. I then tried Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and it stopped the itching IMMEDIATELY. I gradually noticed a change for the better. Now I am completely cured, and am without a pimple or blotch on any part of my body." (Signed) Edward F. McCullough, 249 River St., Mattapan, Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap heal skin eruptions, clear away pimples, and form a most valuable household treatment for sores, burns, etc. Sold by all druggists.

The Art Of Keeping Well--

It is as important to stay well, and keep well as it is to know how to overcome sickness or a run-down condition after you have burned the candle at both ends. A little assistance given to Nature now and then will make your resistive power greater and will enable you to keep well. When you are feeling the least bit "out of sorts" you should at once consult your physician. He is the one who can tell you exactly what to do and who will prescribe the right kind of medicine and the minimum amount. Bring his prescription to us and we will compound it with drugs of known strength, purity and efficiency.

Shoulder Dislocated In An Odd Manner

When a companion playfully jumped on Harold Hoover's back as they were on their way home Tuesday night both fell to the sidewalk.

Hoover rose slowly and complained of sharp pains near his right shoulder. As he neared his home the pain grew intense. Drs. William and O. R. Mickelthwait were summoned and they found that Hoover's shoulder had been dislocated in the fall. It was put back in its normal position with considerable difficulty. Hoover is a brickworker and resides at 845 Front street.

CORN CONTEST CLOSED

It was announced Wednesday by Secretary Maurice Coe of the Retail Association that entries for the Corn Growing Contest to be held in connection with the Kora Carnival had closed and that the entries were considerably in excess of those over last year. Handsome prizes will go to the winners. The entries closed on Tuesday, June 1.

A Dinkey Flood On Turkey Creek

Gardens in the extreme lowlands of Turkey Creek were submerged by water late Tuesday night when this usually calm little stream rose suddenly. Heavy rains at the headwaters of the creek caused the rise. Only the lowlands were affected by the heavy rain, although it looked for a short time as if the creek would leave its banks.

BUYS LAND

J. F. Potts, proprietor of the Arcana theatre, closed a deal Wednesday whereby he came into possession of a tract of land 200 x 180 feet, located on the Chillicothe pike, directly west of Rosemount road. The land belonged to A. T. Noel. Mr. Potts stated that while he did not contemplate improving the land this year, he hoped to erect at least six houses on the site before the close of 1915. The land is level as a floor and will make an ideal building site.

CARS WENT 120 MILES AN HOUR

Hurry Dehner and two sons returned Tuesday evening from Indianapolis, Ind., where on Monday they witnessed the Decoration Day automobile races, and saw Dehner ride home in first place in his big Mercedes car, breaking all world's records. Mr. Dehner states that this was the fourth race he had seen at Indianapolis and the most successful in the history of the racing game. He says it is estimated that at several laps in the great race, some of the cars were traveling at a speed of 120 miles per hour. The tire and engine trouble this year, said Mr. Dehner, were more troubles compared to former years.

Neglect Is Charged By Wife In A Suit

Gross neglect and abandonment are the grounds named in the divorce petition of Ruth B. Williams, wife of Albert A. Williams, which was filed Wednesday morning by Attorneys Blair and Kimble. She claims that her husband deserted her before their child was born, and that he has contributed nothing to its support since its birth. She seeks divorce, alimony, and custody of the child.

The couple were married in this city on March 11, 1914, and have one child, aged six weeks. Judge Stephenson granted a temporary order restraining Williams from selling or encumbering a house and lot on Kinney's Lane, owned jointly by the plaintiff and defendant. Hearing of temporary alimony will be held Friday morning at nine o'clock.

Mrs. Williams was formerly Miss Ruth Means. Her husband is a local shoemaker.

FULLERTON MAY GET ICE AND LIGHT PLANT

There is a possibility of the village of Fullerton having an up-to-date ice plant and an electric light plant, the result of the canning factory of the Fullerton Canning company going under the hammer Wednesday.

The building, including its machinery, was purchased by John Davis, who is interested in the ferryboat Peerless and the big pair of scales were bought by T. L. Zens of Fullerton and vicinity.

NEW BOSTON

The quintet of N. B. H. S. graduates are already making plans for their first year of life's work. Miss Golda O'Neal, daughter of Village Clerk Thomas D. O'Neal will continue to take care of the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the village. It is a state work that Miss O'Neal has been doing for two years. Miss O'Neal has proved quite a help to her father since he took his office as clerk. Eliza Porter will probably take a position as clerk at Ernest Coburn's pharmacy where he has been assisting as clerk. Porter has always expressed a desire of learning the trade of pharmacist. Ernest Taylor has already taken a position as clerk at the C. D. Chinn grocery. Lannie Chinn will spend the summer working as butcher in his father's shop. Raymond Haselip is the only one who has not fully decided as to what course of work he will pursue.

Wesley Sutton, Ben Collins, John Miller and Geo. Church, who were arrested on a charge of gambling Monday were arraigned before Mayor J. S. Davis Tuesday evening in a packed court room. The men were the ones playing poker in the hollow near where William Ehrlebert was shot by Izac Church. Charles Jones, the fifth member of the party failed to appear as he left Monday night for "Old Kentucky." The quartet were fined $50 and costs each. All but $5 and costs was remitted pending good behavior. If arrested on the same charge again the men will be given the limit and made to pay the balance of the fine.

Clarence Nelson, 17, who was lodged in jail Saturday evening by Deputy Leo Wells on a horse stealing charge preferred against him by Liverman Ira Penner was given a hearing in Mayor Davis court, Tuesday noon. He pleaded guilty and was given a stiff lecture. On his promise to pay Penner for the time the horse and buggy were gone he was released. His father was present and said he would see to it that the bill would be paid. Will Minor hired the outfit last Wednesday afternoon and turned it over to Nelson who left the village with the outfit. The horse and buggy were found Thursday in the city and Nelson did not return until Saturday evening.

WILSON TO RECEIVE BERNSTORFF TODAY; PRESIDENT WILL STAND PAT ON HIS DEMANDS

PRESIDENT SENDS NOTE TO LEADERS

Washington, June 2.—Notice to the military functions in Mexico that intolerable conditions have arisen from their incessant warfare was ready to be dispatched by the United States government to the leaders of all of the elements in the southern republic.

The communication, prepared by President Wilson and approved by his cabinet, is the first step in a policy which the administration has determined upon to bring about the restoration of peace in Mexico. Unless the Mexican factions themselves compose the situation, some other means will be found by the United States, it is pointed out, to solve the problem.

Although the communication does not set forth the specific course the United States will adopt in case of the failure of the various factions to agree, it is the administration's plan to extend moral support to the formation of a coalition government made up of the best elements in Mexico and to accord it formal recognition. An embargo on arms would then be issued, giving the constituted government the exclusive right to obtain war munitions.

LACK CONFIDENCE IN PRESENT JAP CABINET

Tokyo, June 2.—The opposition today introduced in the House of Representatives a resolution expressing lack of confidence in the present cabinet.

This resolution charged the cabinet with having failed in the negotiations with China from beginning to the end, with having interfered with the friendly relations with China, with having allowed the suspicions of foreign powers, thereby harming the prestige of the empire instead of laying the foundations of peace in the Orient and with having created a situation likely to be followed by further complications.

GERMANY SAYS SOLDIERS MUST SHUN THE SALOONS

Berlin, June 2 (via London).—The military authorities have issued an order applicable to Berlin forbidding both officers and private soldiers from visiting "the luxurious restaurants and cafes" in Berlin as well as all bars and wine rooms. The order points out that the purpose of furloughs

U. S. SHIPS GO IN FOR REPAIRS

New York, June 2.—The most powerful warships of the Atlantic fleet will be assembled in the Brooklyn navy yard before the end of this week for drydock and repairs. The battleship Florida and ten destroyers were in the yard today and the Wyoming and Texas were in the harbor waiting to enter the yard. The battleship New York is undergoing a general overhauling and will be in the navy yard for three months. Most of the other warships will be ready to leave by July 1 or earlier.

RAIN FAILS TO DAMPEN VET'S JOY

Richmond, Va., June 2.—Veterans of the confederacy on the second day of their 25th annual reunion broke today after a night of cold drenching rain that had reminded them of hardships endured in camp 50 years ago. Notwithstanding the downpour the thousands at Camp Henry C. Stuart were well cared for and reports of medical officers were that the health of the reunionists had not been impaired and that their enthusiasm had not been dampened.

Until a late hour last night the elements stormed the peaceful camp, but the substantial buildings of the fair grounds resisted the attack and the veterans were made comfortable by an avalanche of blanket reinforcements rushed to the scene by relief organizations of the city.

BRITISH STEAMER TORPEDOED

London, June 2 (12:15 p. m.).—The British steamer Saidieh, from Alexandria, Egypt, for Liverpool, was torpedoed yesterday in the North Sea. Seven members of the crew, including a stewardess were drowned. Forty-one survivors were landed today at Chatham.

WOMEN ARE CHARGED AS BOOKMAKERS

Washington, June 2.—A score of defendants including two women faced a charge of conspiracy against the United States government today as alleged bookmakers.

They were arrested in a general raid of ten or more places here late yesterday by special agents of the department of justice and the local police.

MAKES KING EMMANUEL A CORPORAL

Marseilles, France, June 2.—Lieutenant Devenouse, commanding the third zouaves at Constantine, Algeria, has appointed King Victor Emmanuel of Italy third corporal in the first company, first battalion of the regiment, a rank which the king's grandfather was given on the night of the battle of Palestro.

The Austrians were defeated at Palestro May 30-June 1, 1859, by the French and Italian allies.

U. S. GIVEN ROSES

Washington, June 2.—The United States government was formally presented today with a beautiful bouquet of roses consisting of many hundred of blossoms of every color and shade and of more than 400 varieties. Secretary of Agriculture David F. Houston, on behalf of the government, accepted the gift from the National Rose Society, at the government experimental farm at Arlington, Virginia, where the bushes cover two acres of ground.

LONDON HEARS RUMANIA IS MOBILIZING ARMY

London, June 2.—Rumania is now occupying the "seat of neutrality" lately held by Italy. The diplomats of the neutral east evidently are working hard to bring about an understanding between Bulgaria and Rumania. Rumors are rife that Rumania is mobilizing an army of 1,000,000 men which is said to be in splendid condition for active service.

The German press is following some indications of anxiety over this situation and the Frankfurt Zeitung has called for reinforcements to prevent Rumanian intervention. Vienna has been informed that Germany is pouring out blood and treasure in the struggle, must be listened to, and that Austria-Hungary must be prepared to make certain sacrifices to meet the Rumanian demand.

It is significant in the opinion of British observers that three of the opposition leaders in the Hungarian parliament have denounced and have granted a conference with Emperor Francis Joseph for the statement of opinion which cannot be uttered in parliament itself.

The Russians are reported as being heavily reinforced along the river Sui, but the official accounts of operations at this point continue to be contradictory; the only fact emerging clearly is that no decisive result yet has been gained by either side.

In the western area of hostilities nothing of importance has been recorded.

WOMAN A CANDIDATE FOR D. OF L. DEGREE

New York, June 2.—For the first time in the history of Columbia University a woman was a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Laws conferred today at the annual commencement exercises. Louise Lee Schuyler, the founder of the State Charities Aid Association and originator of the first American training school for nurses was chosen for that honor. She is a great-granddaughter of Alexander Hamilton.

Other candidates selected for honorary degrees at Columbia included: Doctor of Laws: Hugh L. Scott, major general and chief of staff, U. S. A.; Myron D. Herrick, former ambassador to France.

American Princess Asks For Divorce

New York, June 2.—Papers in a divorce suit brought by the Princess Evelyn Engeltcheff, formerly Miss Evelyn Partridge, of Chicago, against Prince Nicholas Engeltcheff of Russia were on file in the office of county clerk here today. Although papers were served upon the prince when he arrived here Monday from France, news of the suit did not become public until today.

The princess, who was the daughter of C. W. Partridge, a Chicago merchant, seeks restoration of her maiden name and the custody of her son, 13 years old. The prince was connected with the Russian consulate at Chicago in 1898 when he met and married Miss Partridge.

ORDERS WAR SHOES.
Binghamton, N. Y., June 2.—An order for half a million pairs of war shoes has been placed with a shoe manufacturing company of this place by the Rumanian government. It is to be a rush order and the shoes are to be constructed in accordance with special specifications.

KAISER'S ENVOY TO SEEK PEACE WITH AMERICAN PEOPLE

Washington, June 2.—President Wilson had arranged to give audience today to Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador. The latter requested the interview to learn by personal conversation the point of view of the man who is charged with the execution of the foreign policy of the United States.

The meeting between the president of the United States and the personal representative of the emperor of Germany was the first sought by Count Von Bernstorff since last September, when he returned from Germany after a summer's visit. The call then was to pay respects.

Today's visit was concerned with the delicate relations that have arisen between Germany and the United States ever since the loss of more than 100 Americans when the Lusitania was sunk, and other violations of American rights on the high seas.

The German ambassador has told friends that he realizes the seriousness of the situation and is anxious to do all that he can personally to prevent a rupture in friendly relations. He is unable to communicate easily, however, with his government because German censors work out by the allies. Consequently high officials did not believe the ambassador could bring any proposal from the German government differing from the answer which Herr Von Jawow, the German foreign minister, gave to the American note last Saturday. This was pronounced unsatisfactory in cabinet council yesterday.

The importance of the conference, however, lies in the fact that although the interview was sought without instruction from the German government, the views which the president might express to the ambassador would be transmitted by the latter to Berlin and would naturally be taken into consideration there in connection with the note which the United States government plans to send before the end of the present week.

The "unwavering determination" of the United States to hold Germany to a strict accountability for violation of American rights is to be embodied in the note, the drafting of which was under way today. The main point of the document, which is to be brief, will be dispatched before the end of the week, very probably will be an inquiry to ascertain definitely and promptly if the German government intends to adhere to the principles of international law hitherto accepted universally, or to conduct its maritime warfare according to its own new rules.

Refusing to recognize the principles set forth by the United States that neutral vessels must be visited and searched, and that passengers and crew be transferred to a place of safety before the vessels and cargoes are destroyed, it is generally predicted, by a sovereignty of diplo-

CHECK FOR $65,000,000 DEPOSITED

New York, June 2.—A check for $65,000,000, regarded by New York bankers as the largest ever drawn in this country, was deposited to the credit of the Pennsylvania railroad company in a local bank today. It was drawn by Kuhn, Loeb and company yesterday in payment for general mortgage for half percent bonds issued by the railroad company and sold on public subscription after being underwritten by a syndicate formed by the bankers. It was deposited by officials of the Pennsylvania in the bank on which it was drawn.

ITALY THANKS WILSON

Washington, June 2.—Count Macchi di Cellere, the Italian ambassador, called at the White House today and thanked President Wilson for the acting of the United States in taking over the diplomatic affairs of Italy in Vienna following the declaration of war with Austria.

Bulgaria And Rumania Ready To Enter War?

Paris, June 2.—Bulgaria and Rumania have arrived at a complete understanding, according to a dispatch to the Petit Parisien, Rumania having agreed to cede territory in Dobruja. The two countries will enter the war simultaneously the dispatch says, Rumania against Austria and Bulgaria against Turkey. The army staffs of the two powers are said to be busy co-ordinating military plans.

Negotiations between Rumania and Russia over the lines of the Pruth and of Banate are said to be virtually complete. If Russia accepts Rumania's proposals the latter country is declared to be ready to begin hostilities without delay.

Dobruja is a part of Rumania bounded on the east by the Black Sea and on the north and west by the Danube. Its area is about 4,000 square miles. It was detached from Bulgaria in 1878.

The Pruth river forms the boundary line between the Russian territory of Bessarabia and Moldavia, part of Rumania.

Banate is a region in Southern Hungary bordering on the east on Rumania and on the south on Serbia. It is one of the most fertile districts in Europe. The chief town is Temesvar.

Auto Parade Will Boost Chautauqua

The 1915 Chautauqua in July will be heralded by a big automobile parade over the principal streets of the city two days before the opening day, it was announced today. Participants and other advertising features will be conspicuous in the parade, which is intended to arouse the public interest in the "meritorious eight days' program" which has been arranged for the local engagement. It is planned to have every automobile that can be secured in the parade.

Definite decision relative to the place for holding the Chautauqua will not be made until the arrival of the advance man, who is expected here within a week or ten days.

OUR EXPORTS IN APRIL.

Let us envy the lot of the plain and honest farmer. In April our exports of breadstuffs, cattle, hogs, sheep, meat and dairy products, cotton, and mineral oils amounted to $136,619,637 as against $55,286,782 a year ago in April. In detail exports of corn increased from $508,976 in 1914 to $7,147,435 in 1915 for the corresponding months of April. Wheat exports in April, 1914, were $3,014,746 and in April, 1915, they were $36,281,467. Flour jumped from $4,067,182 in April, 1914, to $9,616,568 in April, 1915. Canned beef was $34,977 in April, 1914, and in April, 1915, it amounted to $1,246,872. Fresh beef exports in April, 1914, amounted to $71,057 and in April, 1915, they were $3,565,960. Bacon exports in April, 1914, were $1,747,814 and in April, 1915, they were $5,617,813. When one studies these figures the reason for the continuance of high prices is not hard to understand. Nor can one fail to see why with the promise of beautiful crops the coming season there should not be wonderful prosperity in store for the agricultural interests of this country.

WHAT CAN ITALY DO?

What will be the effect of Italy's entrance? First of all, it will bring to the Allies a million of trained soldiers. It will relieve the pressure now exerted on the routed Russians in Galicia and call for new contributions of German troops to defend Austria. In moral effect it will be even more impressive than in its immediate military influence. In the tenth month of a war that has become, at the least, a deadlock, the Allies gain a new army, a new nation, not as it all improbable that Italy will be promptly followed by Rumania, or that the appearance of Italian troops at the Dardanelles will enlist Greece. Even Bulgaria may now find the time to consult future interests rather than past grievances.

That Italy can hope to force her way far into Austria now is unlikely. The nature of her frontier, the tremendous Austrian rebound of the Trentino Tyrol, rising out of the Po Valley, precludes the hope of immediate advance on Vienna, perhaps even on Trieste, defended against her fleet by the submarines which accounted for the Gambetta. Not improbably the actual entrance of Italy will be followed by a tremendous Austro-German offensive aimed at Verona and Milan, an effort to seize Verona, recapture the old Quadrilateral, hold the banks of the Adige and the Minio. German "terribleness" may hope to strike terror into the hearts of Italians by a successful campaign in the Po Valley, made possible by recalling the victorious corps from Galicia.

Two months earlier, on the morning of the fall of Przemyśl, the entrance of Italy would have had disastrous results for Austria. For her own sake, for the cause of her new allies, Italy, as she now enters, will come too late. Russia has been defeated, has suffered the most terrible disaster of the war. The fighting in the west has adjourned the hopes of a "Spring drive." The Dardanelles campaign is approaching a deadlock. Italy will not "rush to the succor of the victor," she will enter a perilous path, driven by popular demand and secular grievances. She brings new hope to the Allies, but her share of the burden is bound to be considerable. Venice and Milan may know the destruction of Rheims and Lorraine. From "Germany's New Offensive in May," by Frank H. Simonds, in the American Review of Reviews for June.

Look here. Just after Senator Tremper and Representative Sprague wished Vinton county into us as a part of our new congressional district along comes the department of agriculture with the fawning intelligence that Vinton is one of the fourteen Ohio counties marked for the invasion this year of the Cienda alius the Seventeen Year Locust. And what is worse Vinton is the only Southern Ohio county on the calling list of the pest. We wondered just why Vinton county was being booted around by the district makers. Now we know, but we wonder still more as to just why our own legislators took Vinton to bed with them.

We met an honest man on our way to the office this morning. He wanted a dime, and with a sad expression on his noble countenance said that he had not had a bite to eat for twelve hours. Then we asked him just exactly what he expected to buy for a dime and the honest fellow with an "I cannot tell a lie" look out of his eye, said, "I can get a schooner with one nickel and a sandwich with the other." Such rare honesty could not go unrewarded even though one ran fearful risk of becoming an ajder and abettor of a life devoted to sinful ways.

Again we are disappointed. The statistician of the Hammer Club has failed to weigh in with data as to the exact years in which the June rise got the corn crop in the low lands.

AFTER THE RAMPAGE.

THE END OF THE SESSION.

A calm impassioned review of the work of the Ohio legislature is given in a leading editorial of the Cleveland Plain Dealer under the heading "The End of the Session," as follows:

"If anyone thought Ohio was to have a new kind of legislature as a result of last fall's election, he now has the opportunity to correct the error of his expectations. The eighty-first general assembly adjourned Saturday night. Unless occasion arises for a special session, the law-making machinery will be inactive till January, 1917, when the eighty-second general assembly will meet. By and large, the legislature just adjourned was like the average legislature in Ohio or any other state. Governor Willis, in the closing weeks of the session, has shown himself no less a whit a "boss" in his dealings with the assembly than his predecessors were. If anything he wielded the whip more vigorously. After condemning his immediate predecessor for vicious interference with the legislative process, Mr. Willis adopted their plan and carried it further. When Frank B. Willis appeals to the people of Ohio next year for vindication, it is safe to wager that he will make no further promises to be an "old-fashioned governor." So far as that feature of the present administration is concerned, Mr. Willis' opponents have triumphed signally over his friends and himself. If there were virtue or profit in the "I told you so," those who opposed the election of the present regime might employ it without stint. Some minor accomplishments of a constructive nature stand to the credit of the retiring assembly. But virtually everyone of the big things done have been things undone, the record is one of destruction. The governor and the legislative majority took office in January with the intention to destroy many of the big measures put on the statute books by the previous administration. "Rippers" predominated from the beginning. Neither in his leadership nor in his appointments has the governor shown any independence of partisan traditions. He has ousted capable state officials because their places in the service were needed for his party supporters. THE CIVIL SERVICE HAS MEANT NOTHING TO HIM. The only Democrats he has chosen to recognize have been those who, by one device or another, were an assistance to himself at the last election. Without denying the good things accomplished during the session, there is plenty of evidence that the winter's work by the governor and legislature has been a disappointment to many who were instrumental in bringing the administration into existence."

Our excellent mayor has succeeded in impressing one fact upon the citizens of this man's town—and that is his entire willingness to tackle anything that may be called to his attention. That came home to us Monday afternoon when we walked down town with a man who said he was on his way down to see the mayor to ask him to have an unrightly pile of rubbish removed from an alley near his home. "Our honorable mayor will get it moved for me all right," said the man.

Huntington, in keeping with the progressive spirit that animates the town, has just voted almost unanimously in favor of issuing $500,000 worth of bonds to further extend and improve her highways. There's nothing like good roads to help along the growth of a city.

THE NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION

Columbus, Ohio, June 2.—Now that the Ohio legislature has adjourned after having worked out its ripper program, opportunity is afforded the public men of Ohio to pay more of attention to the conduct of the national government. By all it is recognized that the United States faces a critical situation, but confidence is everywhere expressed in the president and his aides. In Ohio it brings to attention the fact that at no time has the president had any more staunch support than that of Sen. Pomeroy, who in recent addresses has been explaining the work of the administration. The business interests of the country have come to realize that they have nothing to fear in the honest conduct of their affairs and that there is an end to the persecution started by a firebrand executive some years ago. Business interests are emphatic in their assertions that they want no further tinkering with tariff or other laws which tend to make business working conditions unsettled and uncertain, having adjusted themselves to the present system they find it all that was promised and more; nor do they want an upheaval even for what might be a promised advantage. The federal reserve banking system, which is the great contribution of William Jennings Bryan to the administration, is now demonstrating its great strength in sustaining the business of the country at the most distressing time in the world's history, and as outgrowth from that establishment is the creation here of a world financial center for the Americans.

The meeting of the Pan American Financial Congress suggested by the secretary of the treasury, approved by the president and endorsed by congress, forecasts the creation of closer business relations in all the American republics which shall later benefit all the countries of the world.

The people of the United States like to think that they can rely on President Wilson when trouble threatens. They pray that his guidance may still keep the country from conflict with other peoples. But they are all ready to support him in all eventualities.

Those who came to criticize now remain to praise. In praise they who selfishly would benefit are stingy and grudging but they are forced to acknowledge the wonderful leadership of President Woodrow Wilson. Try as they may they cannot deny the constructive work of the national administration.

Given Over To Drilling

The meeting of Vienna Camp Sons of Veterans last night was given over to drilling in manual and march, and practice by drum and bugle corps. Several of the members of the degree team were unable to attend on account of other important engagements, as the Decoration holiday deferred all official meetings to following evening, so the candidates were dismissed and no initiation held. The next big number on the schedule is the Mansfield Division Encampment June 21-24. Several of the members of Vienna will make the trip.

Keep Smiling, But—

It will not suffice to keep smiling; it will not quite serve to be gay. It's never enough to sing out: "I'm the stuff!" "I'll win—if you give me my way." You've got to stand up to disaster. Defiant, your courage renew; Then say with a grin that means business: "I'll win." In spite of the worst you can do!

The world loves a smile—that's granted. But sometimes the world, without fear, is quick to surmise that his anger won't rise. So hands him a poke in the ear! Then if he keeps buoyantly smiling Nor takes in his humor a tuck, The world will declare: "Since he seems not to care, I'll wait him another for luck."

Keep grinning! Oh, yes, he is cheery. As ever you wish to the while; But show that beneath is a full set of teeth. To back up and bolster the smile, Remind the old world that you're ready.

To fight to the end of the war; The world then—no myth!—you will get to smile with you. That might have smiled at you before!

One of the cheering little things these depressing days is to pick up the esteemed Ironton Register and see chanting defiantly from its mast head, the slogan, "Largest circulation in Southern Ohio." In critical moments however, we are disposed to wonder as to the exact definition of the zone included in the Register's "Southern Ohio."

When asked a native said, "Well we are entitled to two saloons under the law and if we had had 105 more people we could have had three saloons. So you see stranger we have just 1395 people." Very exact, diplomatic and informative, we call that answer.

Judging from the lack of news from the Gould-Jones battlefield in Jackson county we would infer, to use the language of these war like days, the principal combatants are facing each other in the trenches, waiting for a an opening.

ALLEGED SLAYER OF BAUCUS IS STILL FREE; OFFICERS ARE BAFFLED

Henry Glenn, alias "High Yaller," the alleged gun man in the Baucus murder case, was still at large Wednesday morning with no certain prospect of his early capture.

The police officials are hopeful that Baldwin detectives may succeed in picking him up at one of the many slaver camps that he is known to frequent along the line of the N. & W. railway.

Jones and Smith, who are imprisoned in the police station, both wrote letters Tuesday evening, the former to his wife in Cincinnati and the other to his father and sister in Florida explaining their present plight. The latter asked each of his two relatives for $25. He made reference to his connection with the murder and the police officials therefore had him write a duplicate copy of the letter which will be preserved as evidence along with his confession.

Jones or Smith have not seen each other since they were locked up at the city prison. Neither knows what the other has confessed to and as their respective stories, told in all of the important details, the officials naturally feel that their statements are bona fide and that the mystery which so long surrounded the dastardly murder of James A. Baucus, the N. & W. detective and former police chief in the East Portsmouth yards, Sunday night, December 6, 1914 has at last been cleared up.

The Cincinnati authorities have been advised of some dives that in the past have been frequented by "High Yaller," and asked to keep them under surveillance.

A. R. Pittman, chief agent of the Halcyon-Police Detective Agency, is expected here from Roanoke, Va., Thursday to assist in the hunt for "High Yaller."

The latest telephone wires in Portsmouth are those leading to the TIMES WANT AD department.

A PIQUANT EFFECT

Black and white is a popular combination this spring, more popular than for a long time, and some very piquant combinations of this combination are seen in some of the newest frocks. Take the gown illustrated, for instance. It is of white chiffon made very full at the skirt, with a tight bodice of black velvet. The sleeves are of white chiffon and a huge upstanding ruche adorns the quaint effect. The skirt has a deep band of the black velvet.

GUN VICTIM IS IN BAD SHAPE

William Ehrheart, victim of the shooting near Star Yards on Decoration Day morning, still remains in a precarious condition at the Hempstead hospital, and the attending physicians have but little hope for his recovery. The lower part of his body is completely paralyzed, and if he recovers he will probably be a helpless cripple.

Dr. C. W. Wundelken and Joseph Fitch took an X-Ray picture of his chest late Tuesday afternoon, which is expected to show the cause of his paralysis. It is thought that a bullet has lodged against the spine, one having entered the body at the left side.

Izar, Church, the self-confessed gun-user, will not be arraigned until definite knowledge is had about Ehrheart's condition. Church pleads self-defense and has engaged Attorney Theodore K. Funk and Nate B. Gilliland to defend him.

Oak Hill Mayor Called By Death

Jacob E. Messer, for the past eight years mayor of the village of Oak Hill, Jackson county, and who had many friends here, passed away Tuesday night, at 7:30, at his home in Oak Hill. He had been ill since last December with tuberculosis of the kidneys.

Mr. Messer was recently brought to the Hempstead hospital here, but his condition failed to yield to expert treatment and he was taken back home, where he gradually became worse until his death, caused last night.

Mr. Messer was 46 years old, and besides his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Hollenbeck Messer, he leaves one son, Alfred, aged 15. He was the last of a family of twelve children.

The deceased leaves a sister-in-law in this city, Mrs. Cornelia Seelye, and a niece, Miss Irma Messer, who is employed in the office of the Selby Shoe company.

Mr. Messer was formerly postmaster of Saunsperville, Jackson county, and was in every way a splendid citizen. He had much to do with the progress Oak Hill has made in the past few years.

With the arrival of relatives the funeral services will be arranged.

Mr. Messer was a frequent business visitor prior to his illness, and the news of his excellent citizen's passing away will bring sorrow to many hearts.

Workman Run Down By A "Jitney" Bus

Attillio S. Sebastian, a shoe worker of No. 1835 Waller street, was run down and severely hurt by a jitney bus, while on his way to work early Wednesday morning.

Sebastian was mounted on a bicycle, enroute to the Selby factory, and was hurrying the curbline, it is claimed, at Eighth and John streets, when the jitney swung around the corner and crashed into him, knocking him from the wheel. He was hurt about the back and bruised and cut about both arms. The bicycle was completely wrecked.

Accompanied by Prof. Jos Mastrangelo, an interpreter, Sebastian later appeared at police headquarters and reported the number of the jitney.

LADIES OF MAGGABEES MEMORIAL JUNE 13

Arrangements for the annual memorial of the ladies of the Maggabees were made at the semi-monthly meeting of the order Tuesday evening. The members will assemble at Greenlawn cemetery about 9 o'clock Sunday morning, June 13, to decorate the graves of their departed members.

When that is completed, they will march in a body to the First Baptist church, where Rev. T. H. McAfee will preach the annual memorial sermon.

The committee in charge of the memorial arrangements is composed of Miss Beatha Harris, Miss Nancy Purtee, and Mrs. Sarah Warnock.

WALKED 10 MILES

Mrs. Elizabeth McCann and children, Lola, James and Bertie, walked to Pond Run Monday. The distance is ten miles and the walk was greatly enjoyed. They had several offers to ride, but were determined on making the trip on foot. They spent the day with Mrs. Ernest Harrison and Mrs. George Harrison. They made the return trip in an automobile.

Italy Is Confident, Is Theme Of Letters From That Country

Prof. Jos. Mastrangelo, music teacher and proprietor of the Mastrangelo Music House, has just received a letter from his aged father which was mailed early in May at Sanmarino, Italy.

The writer expresses the thought that by the time the letter reaches its destination, "war will have been decided by Italy against Austria to avenge the loss of the provinces by Italy in 1860 and 1866," in both of which wars the elder Mastrangelo participated.

Prof. Mastrangelo has also received a letter from a sister, who is a school teacher in Milan. She says many factories there have suspended operations because all of the male employees have gone to the front to fight for their country. The city is kept in total darkness at night, citizens extinguishing all lights to guard against aeroplane raids.

Prof. Mastrangelo's sister had planned to spend her summer vacation at the family home in Sanmarino, but its close proximity to the Austrian coast, which is but fifteen miles distant and the danger of bombardments caused her to change her plans.

The letters speak of the splendid morale of the Italian troops, of the perfect equipment of the army and the generals and confident that they will profit by the mistakes of the enemies of all of the other countries during the past eight months of fighting. The government had early in the world war opened negotiations with Austria, but that country was only bluffing and too fearful of Germany's military strength to line up with the allies, she said.

Prof. Mastrangelo has a brother who has been recalled to the colors for service in the territorial branch of the Italian army.

A SIMPLE AND USEFUL BLOUSE

Illustrated is a good looking blouse of white georgette crepe, simply made and trimmed with a strip of lace at the front. Each covered button lends a smart touch to the waist. Such a blouse as this is a great convenience for it may be worn on many occasions. It is not too dressy for office wear and is still smart enough in appearance to be worn at a luncheon or afternoon affair.

New Law Punishes The "Deaf" Fakirs

William Cooper, of 337 Second street, has addressed a letter to the police officials expressing appreciation on behalf of the deaf mutes of the city for having arrested Henry Lee, a negro, who passed himself off as "deaf and dumb" a few days ago. He also enclosed a copy of the new law passed by the recent legislature providing a penalty of a fine of $100 or imprisonment in the county jail or workhouse for six months, or both, for any person who falsely represents himself or herself as blind, deaf, dumb or crippled. This law becomes effective August 6th. Mr. Cooper offers to co-operate with the police in bringing any and all such impostors to justice.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Flora Harr

The remains of Mrs. Flora Harr, wife of Newton Harr, who resides just back of Fullerton, Ky., were laid to rest in the Liberty cemetery last Thursday, May 27, 1915. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. J. Frazier at the new church at Sunnington on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Harr was taken suddenly ill when she arose to get her husband's breakfast on Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock, from which time she hardly regained consciousness, and at 5 o'clock in the evening she closed her eyes in death. Mrs. Harr was a faithful member of the Methodist Protestant church at Fullerton, which she attended regularly until God called her to a better land. She was also a teacher in the Sabbath school where her sweet and tender voice will be missed. She was an honorable citizen, a woman who had many friends because of her kindness and willingness to assist those in distress, and her pleasant disposition has won her the friendship of many, whose hearts are saddened because a dear wife, mother, sister and friend has been taken from them, one who will be missed in Fullerton and the surrounding community, where she was well known. She will be missed from the home, from the church and from the Sunday school, and by all who knew her. But God knows best, and in glory may we meet, is oft prayer. Mrs. Harr was a devoted wife and loving mother, one who took pride and interest in her home and the general welfare of her husband and children.

Eight members of her Sunday school class acted as honorary pallbearers—Misses Lola Timberlake, Melissa Greer, Alice Nickel, Ida Carpenter, Lida Adkins, Edna Davis, Esta and Carrie Brown. There were also six little flower-girls who lent the way.

Mrs. Flora Harr, nee Miss Flora Pankenke, was born December 3, 1878. She was 36 years, 5 months and 22 days of age at the time of her death. She leaves to mourn her death her beloved husband, Mr. Isaac Newton Harr, two sons, Raymond, aged 10 years, and Roy, aged 8 years, a mother, Mrs. R. C. Cooper, wife of Col. A. S. Cooper, a prominent lawyer of Gretna, Ky., three sisters, Mrs. Addie Royster, Mrs. Garnet Hardin, of Bloom Switch, Ohio, and Mrs. Grace Castrell, of Portsmouth, Ohio, and one half sister, Mrs. Millie Adams, of Quincy, Ky.; two brothers, Morris Pankenke and Edward Pankenke, of Quincy, Ind., besides a host of friends and other relatives.

Our sympathy goes out to her devoted husband, who is heartbroken over the loss of a faithful and loving companion, and to her two dear little children, who have lost a kind mother's care; also to her aged mother, sisters, brother and the many friends.

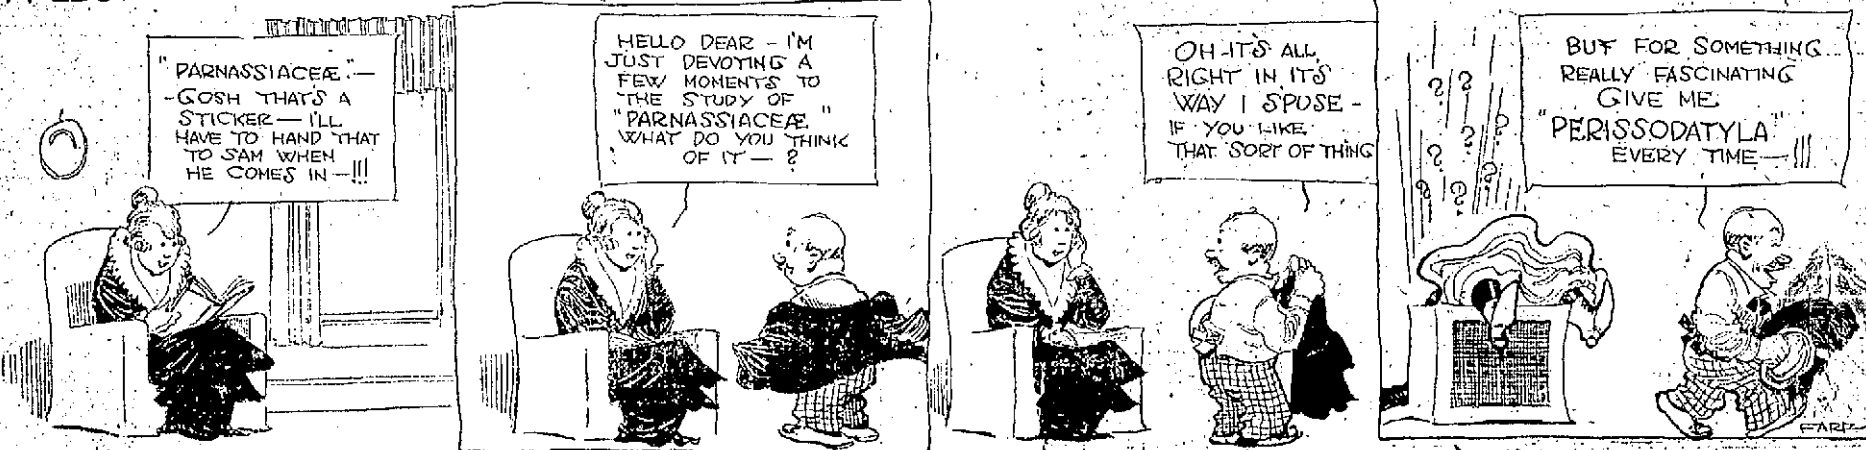

We know, however, our words of sympathy avail little in comparison with those of our dear Father, who is consoling them in their sad affliction.

Although grieving over the separation, we know she has gone to rest safely in the arms of Jesus, and we could not wish her back. But oh, we miss her! Yes, we miss her, for there is a vacant chair that can never be filled. A. A. H.
